Words from our Pastor

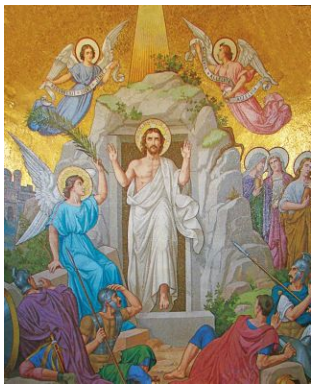
Sunday 9, 2023 Easter Sunday

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Christ has resurrected! Triumph has arrived, Christ has defeated death! After forty days of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we have reached the most awaited moment, the most important celebration of our faith as Catholics, the Passion, death, and resurrection of Christ. In this event we recognize the power of God that has manifested in his Son Jesus, who has overcome this world and its temptations, even death and death on the Cross, thus showing us that the way to reach the resurrection is a path of sacrifice and devotion with all the love. We are invited to maintain this joy for eight days until we celebrate the eighth of Easter and end with the Feast of Divine Mercy on the Second Sunday of Easter. It is time to proclaim Christ as the solution of our lives, if he will overcome this world, even death, it is possible that he will help us overcome our problems and difficult situations. With the resurrection of Jesus, God shows us that it is worth trusting in Him, because when one trusts in Him, He will never abandon us, but will remain with us until the last days of the world. Let us proclaim that Christ is alive and is alive in each one of us every time we do what He asked us to do for Him, make His merciful face present in the midst of this world in need of love. Let us ask God to give us the ability to manifest the resurrection to each of the brothers that we meet in our daily life, May God always be our strength and our refuge.

Unas palabras de nuestro Pastor

Domingo 9, 2023 Domingo de Resurreccion



Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

¡Aleluya! ¡Aleluya! ¡Cristo ha Resucitado! ¡El triunfo ha llegado, Cristo ha vencido a la muerte! Después de cuarenta días de oración, ayuno y obras de caridad, hemos llegado al momento más esperado, la celebración más importante de nuestra fe como católicos, la Pasión, muerte y resurrección de Cristo. En este acontecimiento reconocemos el poder de Dios que se manifiesta en su Hijo Jesus, que ha vencido a este mundo y sus tentaciones, incluso a la muerte y la muerte en la cruz, de esta manera nos muestra que el camino para llegar a la resurrección es un camino de sacrificio y entrega con todo el amor. Este gozo se nos invita a mantenerlo por ocho días en que celebramos la octava de Pascua y terminar con la fiesta de la Divina Misericordia el Segundo Domingo de Pascua. Es tiempo de proclamar a Cristo como la solución de nuestras vidas, si ha vencido a este mundo, incluso a la muerte, es posible que venza nuestros problemas y situaciones difíciles. Con la resurrección de Jesus, Dios nos muestra que vale la pena confiar en él, pues cuando uno confía en él nunca va a abandonarnos, sino permanecerá con nosotros hasta los últimos días del mundo. Proclamemos que Cristo está vivo y está vivo en cada uno de nosotros cada vez que hacemos lo que él nos pidió que hiciéramos por él, hacer presente su rostro misericordioso en medio de este mundo necesitado de amor. Pidamos a Dios nos de la capacidad de manifestar la resurrección a cada uno de los hermanos que nos encontramos en la vida diaria, que Dios sea siempre nuestra fuerza y nuestro refugio.
