Words from our Pastor

June 4, 2023

Solemnity of the Holy Trinity

We meet in the house of God, every prayer, to raise our pleas to God Triune and One, in three different persons, God the Father who is creator, God the Son our Savior and God the Holy Spirit Sanctifier. Every day as Catholics we consecrate our lives and our bodies to the Holy Trinity, our prayers are always begun in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. In the Eucharist (Mass) we begin our mass in the Holy Trinity, and we end with the blessing of God in the name of the Holy Trinity, this is the foundation of our faith and that is why we live in a constant prayer to God Triune and One. Part of our fundamental Theology is to know the Trinitarian mystery and its development in history, how God is always manifesting himself for the good of his people, for the good of his adopted children through Jesus Christ. Celebrating the Trinity is celebrating the unity in God who asks us not to be separated, but to remain united following His example. On this we base our Sunday prayer as well, to come united as the Trinity of God, because together we build strength, encourage and strength the community in its mission in this world, which is to be a leaven of peace and tranquility. To continue asking for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to make God's presence present in our lives, in the life of our neighbor, in our society and in this world that needs God so much, to fight against the sin that leads us to break our friendship with God, with our neighbor and with ourselves. Let us ask God for each one of us, so that we are receptive to that Spirit of truth and that, making a good discernment of our life, we let the Holy Spirit possess us, lead us and keep us in the truth and thus be living witnesses of the Gospel, in a Unity and Peace that only comes from the presence of God in the world. God, you are three times Holy, I adore you and bless you, you who are the Creator Father, the Savior Son, and the Sanctifying Holy Spirit. Make us always keep in our soul your blessed image, in the likeness of which we have been created, to set an example as your Savior Son and living a holy life with your Holy Spirit, one day we can reach you and you can recognize us and remain united to you for eternity. All in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen
