Words from our Pastor

September 24, 2023

XXV Ordinary Sunday

"Whether by my life or by my death, Christ will be glorified in me." With these words Saint Paul teaches us the fullness of belonging to Christ, being his true disciples, we could say being other Christs. To be only for Him, in life or in death, thus completing the mission in our life, that mission of being happy and free. Happiness and freedom that translates into "Love God above all things and our neighbors as ourselves." Only when you know how to love do you know how to live and you only know how to live when you know how to serve, serve others. Jesus tells us about an extraordinary love that we must live in an ordinary way in life, and we read last week a special way of living love is knowing how to forgive. Forgiving does not mean forgetting, but remembering, with a sense of teaching, in a unique way to improve our lives on the path to perfection. Today the word of God in the gospel tells us that God is like the vinedresser who goes out and finds people in need of work at different times of the day, he gives them all work and pays them the same amount; With this he makes us see the mercy of God and his goodness, He likes to do good, but human beings do not like to see his goodness, we demand what according to us as human beings we think He must do. The forgiveness that we saw last week and how resentment, and envy will never lead us to enjoy life. This weekend's invitation is for us to enjoy God's blessing in our lives without paying attention to what others receive, because if our life is completely given to God we will fully trust in Him who will never abandon us. What corresponds to us is to work for our daily bread that God will do what corresponds to Him. The words of the prophet Isaiah "Seek the Lord while you can find him, call on him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the criminal his plans; let him return to the Lord, and he will have mercy; to our God, who is rich in forgiveness. It is the time, it is the opportunity, we need to seek it and abandon ourselves to Him. May we be attentive to the teaching, to listen to his word and abandon ourselves to his love and mercy. Amen

Unas palabras de nuestro Pastor

Septiembre 24, 2023

XXV Domingo Ordinario

"Ya sea por mi vida, ya sea por mi muerte, Cristo será glorificado en mí." Con estas palabras San Pablo nos enseña la plenitud de pertenecer a Cristo, ser sus verdaderos discípulos, podríamos decir ser otros Cristos. Ser solo y para El, en la vida o en la muerte, completando así la misión en nuestra vida, esa misión de ser feliz y libre. La felicidad y la libertad que se traduce en "Amar a Dios sobre todas las cosas y al prójimo como a nosotros mismos". Solo cuando se sabe amar se sabe vivir y solo se sabe vivir cuando se sabe servir, servir a los demás. Jesus nos habla de un amor extraordinario que debemos vivirlo de una forma ordinaria en la vida, y decíamos la semana pasada una forma especial de vivir el amor es saber perdonar. Y perdonar no significa olvidar, sino recordar, pero con un sentido de enseñanza, de una forma única para mejorar en nuestra vida en el camino hacia la perfección. Hoy la palabra de Dios en el evangelio nos narra a Dios como el viñador que sale y se encuentra a gente en necesidad de trabajo en diferentes momentos del día, a todos les da trabajo y les paga la misma cantidad; con esto nos hace ver la misericordia de Dios y su bondad, a Él le gusta hacer el bien, pero a los seres humanos no nos gusta ver su bondad, sino que exigimos lo que según nosotros como seres humanos pensamos que Él debe hacer. El perdón que mirábamos la semana pasada y como el rencor, el resentimiento y la envidia, nunca nos llevaran a disfrutar de la vida, la invitación de este fin de semana es que disfrutemos la bendición de Dios en nuestras vidas sin fijarnos en lo que los demás reciben, pues si nuestra vida esta entregada completamente a Dios confiaremos plenamente en El que nunca nos abandonara. Lo que nos corresponde es trabajar por el pan de cada día, que Dios hará lo que a Él le corresponde. Las palabras del profeta Isaías "Busquen al Señor mientras lo pueden encontrar, invóquenlo mientras está cerca; que el malvado abandone su camino, y el criminal sus planes; que regrese al Señor, y él tendrá piedad; a nuestro Dios, que es rico en perdón'. Es el tiempo, es la oportunidad, necesitamos buscarnos y abandonarnos en El. Ojalá y seamos atentos a la enseñanza, a la escucha de su palabra y nos abandonemos en su amor y misericordia. Amen
