CHRIST THE KING

[Today's] readings (...) have as their common theme the centrality of Christ (...) Christ is the centre of creation, Christ is the centre of his people and Christ is the centre of history.

1. The apostle Paul (...) offers us a profound vision of the centrality of Jesus. He presents Christ to us as the first-born of all creation: in him, through him and for him all things were created. He is the centre of all things, he is the beginning: Jesus Christ, the Lord. God has given him the fullness, the totality, so that in him all things might be reconciled (cf. Col 1:12-20). He is the Lord of creation, he is the Lord of reconciliation.

This image enables to see that Jesus is the centre of creation; and so the attitude demanded of us as true believers is that of recognizing and accepting in our lives the centrality of Jesus Christ, in our thoughts, in our words and in our works (...)

2. (...) Christ is the centre of the people of God. Today, he is here in our midst. He is here right now in his word, and he will be here on the altar, alive and present amid us, his people (...) The tribes of Israel came to look for David and anointed him king of Israel before the Lord (cf. 2 Sam 5:1-3). In searching for an ideal king, the people were seeking God himself: a God who would be close to them, who would accompany them on their journey, who would be a brother to them.

Christ, the descendant of King David, is really the "brother" around whom God's people come together. It is he who cares for his people, for all of us, even at the price of his life. In him we are all one, one people, united with him and sharing a single journey, a single destiny. Only in him, in him as the centre, do we receive our identity as a people.

3. Finally, Christ is the centre of the history of humanity and also the centre of the history of every individual. To him we can bring the joys and the hopes, the sorrows and troubles which are part of our lives. When Jesus is the centre, light shines even amid the darkest times of our lives; he gives us hope, as he does to the good thief in today's Gospel (...)

We would do well, each one of us, on this day, to think about our own personal history, to look at Jesus and to keep telling him, sincerely and quietly: "Remember me, Lord, now that you are in your kingdom! Jesus, remember me, because I want to be good, but I just don't have the strength: I am a sinner, I am a sinner. But remember me, Jesus! You can remember me because you are at the centre, you are truly in your kingdom!" How beautiful this is! (...)

Let us ask the Lord to remember us, in the certainty that by his mercy we will be able to share his glory in paradise. Let us go forward together on this road!

(Pope Francis, Homily on the Solemnity of Christ the King, Nov 24, 2013)

THE PATH TO THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

The Fifth Commandment forbids direct and intentional killing as gravely sinful. Since the first century, the Church has addressed the moral evil of abortion and the killing of a defenseless baby in the womb. People who are casual about the sin of abortion and who choose to view it as a political issue rather than the serious moral issue that it is are guilty of violating the Fifth Commandment. You cannot be "pro-choice" (pro-abortion) and remain a Catholic in good standing. That's why the Church asks those who maintain this position not to receive holy Communion. We are not being mean or judgmental, we are simply acknowledging the fact that such a stance is objectively and seriously sinful and is radically inconsistent with the Christian way of life.

"Good Catholics cannot be pro-choice; The Fifth Commandment demands respect for life as God's most precious gift", Archbishop Robert J. Carlson, St. Louis Review July 06, 2010

We can no longer be Catholics by chance, but instead be Catholics by conviction and action.

ADOPT A FAMILY

Each year, a number of our parishioner families have adopted struggling families in the north Aurora area and helped them out at Christmas time. If you would like to be a part of this project, we can find you a family in the community that needs some help with food and gifts for X-mas. We only ask that your assistance be equivalent to a gift or two for each family member and that you provide at least one week's worth of food. You have the option of arranging your gift with the family directly or having us be intermediaries – your choice.

call the parish office

The gifts for our Christmas Baskets for Low Income Families begins with you all taking tags off of our Gifting Tree. On November 29th, gift tags will be available for all of you to take. These tags represent items to buy for the children who will be on our Christmas Basket list.

After today, please take a tag (or 2 or 3) from the Gifting Tree and purchase that item. Please bring the tag and the item back to the Narthex unwrapped no later than Sunday, December 14th.
