What Scripture Says about Being a Father

-Dad provides for his family. This means more than housing, food and formal education: Dad provides a sense of identity as a beloved son/daughter, and a moral compass for life.
"And whoever does not provide for relatives and especially family members has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever." (I Tim. 5: 8)

-Dad's moral education sets his children up for lifelong prosperity.
It's a father's responsibility to "train up a child": not the school, not the government, but you.
"Train the young in the way they should go; even when old, they will not swerve from it." (Proverbs 22:6)

-Dad spends time with his children, passing on faith and wisdom to them.
Dads must engage their children in the kind of deep, heart-to-heart conversations that impart more than facts, but teach faith and wisdom.
"Take to heart these words which I command you today.Keep repeating them to your children. Recite them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you get up. Bind them on your arm as a sign and let them be as a pendant on your forehead.Write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates." (Deut. 6: 6-9)

-Dad disciplines his children
"Whoever spares the rod hates the child, but whoever loves will apply discipline." (Proverbs 13: 24)

-Dad doesn't repress his children, but raise them as children of God
"Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up with the training and instruction of the Lord." (Eph 6:4)

-Dad is compassionate
"As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him." (Psalm 103:13)

-Dad prays for his children
"Lord, God of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Israel… give to my son Solomon a wholehearted desire to keep your commandments, precepts, and statutes, that he may carry out all these plans" (1 Chronicles 29:19)

THE PATH TO THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

"We've heard that we are all one Body in Christ so MANY times, which is good, but we probably lose the REVOLUTIONARY nature of what St. Paul was saying. Every culture before Christ had, in one way or another, looked at some people as "more human" and other people as "less human" or even "expendable non-humans". Saint Paul says – "THOSE DAYS ARE OVER"….The Church is the immune system of the Body of Christ. It looks for threats to the Body of Christ, threats that attack the dignity of any single member of the Body of Christ, and the Church points out those threats. Saint Boniface:…Let us preach the whole of God's plan to the powerful and the humble*, to rich and to poor, to men of every rank and age, as far as God gives us the strength,* in season and out of season. May the Eucharist strengthen us to preach the WHOLE of God's plan, and not just the parts that suit our politics."

"Our Greatest Threats: Abortion and Euthanasia", Fr. John Holowell

Christ has not called us to be casual Catholics;

He has called us to be Catholics by conviction and action.
