Eucharistic Revival

This Corpus Christi Sunday (June 11), the archdiocese kicks off the second year of the Eucharistic Revival which focuses on the parish. We are convicted that the Parish Year is the most important year of the Eucharistic Revival. The reasons for this are many but primarily, the most common experience for the faithful to encounter Jesus in the Eucharist is the local celebration of the Mass which is celebrated in our parishes. As one pastor noted, “We need to understand how to better participate in what we do every day.”

Leading up to the parish year, I have sent teams from the pastoral center to visit many of our parishes and deaneries to communicate the goals of the Eucharistic Revival and inform the planning and discernment of the parish teams. The U.S. bishops have hoped that the Eucharistic Revival would be mostly a grassroots movement. I would like to share here the specific goals for the Archdiocese of Denver in hopes that you would pray with them and ask Jesus how he is asking you and your parish to respond in this year.

The first goal is to foster encounters with Jesus in the Eucharist among many who have not encountered him there before.

Another way of stating this is that, if at the end of the Eucharistic Revival, the only thing we have done is encourage someone who is already faithful and devoted to the Eucharist to be more devoted, we have failed. Our primary aim is to, as we heard in the synodal process, “Find creative ways to bring our Eucharistic Lord to others and to bring others to our Eucharistic Lord.” Jesus desires new people to find him in the Eucharist. He desires for Catholics who come to Mass, but were never taught how to participate, to participate fully and drink from living waters that are present in the liturgy. He wants to do something new.

Discover the Amazing Riches of the Catholic Faith

What is the Catholic Church all about? What does it mean to be Catholic?
What do Catholics actually believe?

The Catholic Church is extraordinary. Founded by Christ himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in his Word, his sacraments, and his saints. The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation.

Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church.
