I want to thank each and everyone of you for all your support and for entrusting me with your children for the past two years. I am honored and feel fortunate to have been given the opportunity to be part of the St. Angela Merici family. Although our time together was short, I take with me wonderful memories. SUNDAY REFLECTION:

Jesus in today's Gospel meets a funeral procession coming out of the gates of the town of Nain. Unlike when he raised Jairus' daughter (Mark 5) or Lazarus (John 11), no one requests his assistance. Moved by compassion for the widow who had lost her only son, Jesus steps forward and, laying his hand on the bier, commands him to arise.

The onlookers were reminded of the story of Elijah in the first reading who raised the dead child of the widow of Zarephath and "gave him [back] to his mother." They proclaimed that "a great prophet has arisen in our midst." Jesus of course is more than a prophet; he is the ruler over life and death. In the Mosaic law, contact with a dead body renders an Israelite unclean for a week. Jesus' touch and word reverses that; instead of being defiled by contact with death, he gave life. Like the physical healings that he performed, Jesus' raising people from the dead is a sign of the Messiah's arrival. But it is more than that; these healings are visible signs of the awakening and liberating of men from the spiritual death caused by sin. The Church Fathers return to this theme again and again. St. Ambrose writes, "the widow signifies Mother Church, weeping for those who are dead in sin and carried beyond the safety of her gates. The multitudes looking on will praise the Lord when sinners rise again from death and are restored to their mother." When we are dead in sin, it is the outstretched hand and the words of Christ spoken by his priest that raise us from spiritual death and restore us to the arms of our mother, the Church. With the Psalmist, then, we can sing "I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. You brought me up from the nether world; you preserved me from those going down into the pit."

Reflección del Domingo

Podemos pensar que hemos perdido a un hijo, pero Jesús no lo ve así. Este fin de semana volvemos a "Tiempo Ordinario." No decimos "ordinario" en el sentido de "usual" o "común" sino ordenado o secuencial. En las próximas siete semanas tendremos lecturas secuenciales del Evangelio de Lucas, Las lecturas muestran aspectos de discipulado: lo que significa ser seguidor de Jesús. Es el tema que quisiera desarrollar: ser discípulo. Queremos que el Don del Espíritu de fruto. Queremos que nuestros jóvenes sean discípulos de Jesús por el poder del Espíritu Santo. Tu y yo podemos sentirnos como la viuda del Evangelio - como hemos perdido un hijo. Y como el profeta Elías podemos preguntar porque Dios permitió que eso ha sucedido. Para hablar personalmente: No lo sé. A veces me acercan con angustia. Generalmente no tengo una respuesta, pero Jesús la tiene.

Después de este testimonio Dios actuó directamente. Lo que Dios hizo por Pablo puede hacer por el hijo por quien estas preocupado. Entraremos en mayor profundidad en las próximas siete semanas. Quitara cualquier excusa. Para hoy quisiera reconocer que Jesús tiene un plan para cada uno de nosotros y nuestros jóvenes. Podemos pensar que hemos perdido a un hijo, pero Jesús no lo ve así. Lleno de compasión dice al joven, "Te digo, levante". Amen.

ORACION DEL PAPA FRANCISCO PARA EL JUBILEO DE LA MISERICORDIA

Señor Jesucristo, tu has enseñado a ser misericordioso como el Padre del cielo, y nos has dicho que quien te ve, lo ve también a El. Muéstranos tu rostro y obtendremos la salvación. Tu mirada llena de amor libero a Zaqueo y a Mateo de la esclavitud del dinero; a la adúltera y a la Magdalena de buscar la felicidad solamente en una creatura; hizo llorar a Pedro luego de la traición y aseguro el Paraíso al ladrón arrepentido. Haz que cada uno de nosotros escuche como propia la palabra que dijiste a la samaritana: Si conocieras el don de Dios!

Tu eres el rostro visible del Padre invisible, del Dios que manifiesta su omnipotencia sobre todo con el perdón y la misericordia: haz que, en el mundo, la iglesia sea el rostro visible de Ti, su Señor, resucitado y glorioso.

Tu has querido que también tus ministros fueran revestidos de debilidad para que sientan sincera compasión por los que se encuentran en la ignorancia o en el error: haz quien se acerque a uno de ellos se sienta esperado, amado y perdonado por Dios.

Manda tu Espíritu y conságranos a todos con su unción para que el Jubileo de la Misericordia sea un año de gracia del Señor y tu Iglesia pueda, con renovado entusiasmo, llevar la Buena Nueva a los pobres proclamar la libertad a los prisioneros y oprimidos y restituir la vista a los ciegos.

Te lo pedimos por intercesión de María, madre de la Misericordia, a ti que vives y reinas con el Padre y el Espíritu Santo por los siglos de los siglos. Amen.

POPE FRANCIS'S PRAYER FOR THE JUBILEE OF MERCY.

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him. Show us your face and we will be saved.

Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things; made Peter weep after his betrayal, and assured Paradise to the repentant thief. Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: "if you knew the gift of God!"

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy: let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: Let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God.

Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.
