Some thoughts from Fr. Mike...

Dear Friends,

Jesus sent his disciples ahead of him to announce, with a message of peace, that the reign of God was at hand. We are told in the Gospel passage from Luke that the disciples returned with a great sense of joy that the mission had been successful as evident by the people who flocked to listen and welcome the Word of God. It is very heartening to be reminded of the enthusiasm that was present at that time in both those who spoke the Word and God and those who heard it. At the same time, Jesus appears to lament over the fact that there would be far fewer people who would be willing to proclaim the Word of God than there were those who were ready to receive it. – “the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.” Even in the time of Jesus, there were relatively few people who were willing to take the bold step of proclaiming God’s Word. It was and is safer to be a spectator. It was and is much less risky to hear than it is to be the messenger.

The need to spread the Word of God continues to be real while those who are willing to be the ones proclaiming God’s Word remains few. The invitation to take part in the work of the Lord is extended to our generation, to our present day and age. Our mission as Christians continues to the task of bringing the peace of Christ wherever we go and to all we meet. No special training is needed for the work that Jesus has entrusted to us. What is required is the willingness to take God’s Word and proclaim it unfiltered by our own desires, prejudices and ideologies that we have allowed into our lives. One of the greatest hindrances to the spreading of God’s Word is the way in which God’s Word has been corrupted to support human desire and subscribed ideologies. Too often God’s Word is made into the supporting message for human endeavors instead of allowing God’s Word to direct all that we do.

The joy of the disciples, after proclaiming the Good News, was real. The enthusiasm of the people who heard the Good News was authentic. The message of peace that Jesus sent lead to the conversion of many hearts. Our joy and the joy we offer can be just as genuine when we accept the Good News of Jesus.

Peace, prayers and love to all of you,

Fr. Mike

Thank you again for your generosity.

READER'S CLUB

The next selection for the Reader's Club is "The Thursday Murder Club" by Richard Osman. "The Thursday Murder Club is a jaunty and light-hearted cozy mystery focused on four friends living in a retirement village called Coopers Chase who enjoy getting together on Thursdays to investigate and solve cold cases -- the Thursday Murder Club." We've scheduled our next meeting for Thursday, July 14th at 7:30 PM. Our theme will be "British cuisine". For more information about the Reader's Club or to RSVP contact Fran - ambiofran@gmail.com.

RCIA - Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a wonderful faith journey for those who wish to be Baptized, those who are Baptized and are now interested in joining the Catholic Church and those who have not completed the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation). The RCIA is a journey of faith where people are encouraged to discern God's call in their lives. It is not a typical classroom setting. Our Catholic beliefs are introduced and explained and participants in the RCIA are encouraged to see how our beliefs, practices, Liturgies and Sacraments can have an impact in everyday situations. Anyone and everyone is invited to "come and see" to find out if the RCIA process is what you are being drawn to in your life. RCIA sessions are ready to resume, although at this time the meetings will be held outdoors or via Zoom. If you are interested or would like more information, contact Fr. Mike – frmikestjoseph@optonline.net or 732-792-2270.

BAPTISMS

Baptisms are celebrated on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month at 12:30 PM. Up to four families will be scheduled for each celebration of Baptism. If you would like to schedule Baptism for your child, please call the parish office 732-792-2270.

BAPTISM BIBS

While the practice of giving out Baptism bibs has been suspended during the pandemic, we will soon begin using Baptism bibs again at our celebrations of the Sacrament of Baptism. If any of those who have so lovingly made the Baptism bibs can continue, that would be very much appreciated. New people who would like to make the bibs are also welcome. If you would like to see a sample, please see Fr. Mike. The Baptism bib is a symbol of the newly Baptized child putting on Christ. The purpose of having parishioners make the bibs instead of using prepackaged felt bibs, is to demonstrate that we are all connected in faith and as community. While making the bibs, many have prayed for the child who will receive it. If you have questions or just want some more information, give Fr. Mike or see him after Mass. Thanks!
