Some thoughts from Fr. Mike...

Dear Friends,

The Gospel reading for today provides a very complex message concerning our responsibility towards the salvation of others within the community. In Christ, we are all brothers and sisters and members of the same family. Life is short and we all have to take seriously the duty of doing good while we can by helping those who are weak, struggling or in need of our assistance. This does not mean we are called to be prying busybodies, interfering in the lives of others. The love of neighbor has to be prudent and tactful. We should remember that the best portion of a good life are those little nameless, un-remembered acts of kindness.

There is no living together without pain and the Gospel brings us the delicate question of counseling those in the community who seem to go astray. It goes without saying that correction is seldom welcome and those who need it most always like it least. This is a matter in which great caution must be exercised because the wrong word, false accusation or undue interference can cause far more damage than the original fault.

Love is the one thing that cannot hurt our neighbor. If we have the ability to convey a genuine concern, a little honest talking can often clear the air and change the situation for the better. It is worth remembering that none of us is perfect, so when we point out the faults of others, we should be prepared to hear about our own. As we can offend others unintentionally and unwittingly, when we have a difference with anyone, we should try in every way possible to settle the matter and be reconciled. Harsh words, aggressive attitudes, belief of being superior to another and demeaning another have no place in the Christian community and will seldom, if ever, bring about any kind of positive change. Sometimes we just have to express what we believe and leave it at that. Let us remember that as Jesus called people to conversion, he did not beat people over the head. Jesus offered a way of life and then left the decision up to the individual. Some accepted his invitation, some did not. With the exception of religious leaders, Jesus never resorted to demeaning an individual.

Peace, prayers and love to all of you,

Fr. Mike

There will always be a need for assistance with food for many people so we will continue to collect food, paper goods and toiletries in the bins inside the church entrances. *****

BAPTISM BIBS

At the Sacrament of Baptism for infants, a white Baptismal bib is given to each child as a symbol that they have been clothed with Christ. We have been blessed with parishioners who have lovingly made the bibs. This gives it a special meaning since they come from members of the community. If any of those who have so lovingly made the Baptism bibs can continue, that would be very much appreciated. New people who would like to make the bibs are also welcome. If you would like to see a sample, please see Fr. Mike. The Baptism bib is a symbol of the newly Baptized child putting on Christ. The purpose of having parishioners make the bibs instead of using prepackaged felt bibs, is to demonstrate that we are all connected in faith and as community. While making the bibs, many have prayed for the child who will receive it. If you have questions or just want some more information, give Fr. Mike or see him after Mass. Thanks!

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

The next meeting will take place on Tuesday, September 26th at 7:30PM in the Parish Hall. In the present time, it is important that we have a way to get news out to everyone. We will use Flocknotes to let parents know if Religious Education classes are canceled and we send out reminders about scheduled closings for holidays, etc. It is easy to be on the notification list – just text the code sjmill to 84576 and follow the prompts. You may also go to our website to be included – stjosephmillstone.org/flocknotes. Just enter your information and follow the prompts.
