Some thoughts from Fr. Mike...

Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord, a mystery that marks both an end and a beginning. Jesus, who lived, suffered, died, and rose again, is now taken up into heaven in glory. But He is not gone. He is not absent. He is more present to us than ever.

In the first reading from Acts, the disciples stand looking into the sky as Jesus is taken up before their eyes. It is a moment of awe and confusion. The angels ask, "Why are you standing there looking at the sky?" It is almost a gentle rebuke: Do not stay frozen. Do not just watch. Move. Act. Live the mission. The Ascension is not about Jesus leaving us—it is about Jesus empowering us to be His witnesses in the world. He entrusts His mission to the Church—to us. And He does not abandon us. Rather, He promises the Holy Spirit to guide, strengthen, and animate us.

In the second reading from Ephesians, St. Paul prays that we may have a spirit of wisdom and revelation to know the hope of our calling. He speaks of Christ seated at the right hand of the Father—above all powers and dominions. And then he says something remarkable: God has placed all things beneath His feet—and made Him head over all things for the Church. This is not just theological poetry. It's a promise. Jesus, our Head, has entered into glory. And where the Head has gone, the Body—us, His Church—is destined to follow. The Ascension is a preview of our own destiny: to be with God, in glory, forever.

The Gospel from Luke ends not with sadness but with joy. The disciples worship Jesus and return to Jerusalem with great joy. Why? Because they finally understand. Jesus has not left them alone—He has gone to prepare a place for them, and He will send the Spirit. And now, the mission is clear: "That repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached in His name to all nations." This is our task. The Church is not meant to look up into the sky waiting for Jesus to return; we are meant to look out into the world and proclaim the Gospel.

So, the Ascension teaches us to live between heaven and earth. Our eyes are lifted to the heavens—our ultimate home—but our feet are firmly planted in the mission field. We are to live as witnesses: of Christ's death, His resurrection, and His enduring presence through His Spirit.

Let us not stand still, looking up. Let us move forward in hope, in joy, and in mission, for Jesus has gone ahead of us—and He will come again in glory.

Peace, prayers and love,

Fr. Mike

We meet every Tuesday at 10:00AM. You can make shawls from home as well. If you are in need of some comfort and would like a prayer shawl, just let us know. We will pray for you and do our best to get a shawl to you. For more information, or to request a shawl, please contact Pat - 314PMCD@gmail.com.

RCIA – RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a faith journey for those who wish to be Baptized, those who are Baptized and are interested in joining the Catholic Church and those who have not completed the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation). The RCIA is a journey of faith where people are encouraged to discern God's call in their lives. It is not a typical classroom setting. Our Catholic beliefs are introduced and explained and participants in the RCIA are encouraged to see how our beliefs, practices, Liturgies and Sacraments can have an impact in everyday situations. Anyone and everyone is invited to "come and see" to find out if the RCIA process is what you are being drawn to in your life. If you are interested or would like more information, contact Fr. Mike – fmikestjoseph@optonline.net or 732-792-2270.

CHOIRS, CANTORS AND MUSIC MINISTRY

Do you like to sing? Do you use your voice to praise God? The parish choirs would love to have you join either the St. Choir or the Children's Choir. You do not need to be a professional singer. If you have a good voice and feel comfortable in leading singing, why not use your talent to be a Cantor at Mass? Can you play an instrument and are willing to put your talent to use as we gather to celebrate Mass? Perhaps you would like to join the contemporary group. These opportunities do not demand a lot of time – just a commitment and willingness. If you would like to become part of a choir, serve as a Cantor or lend your musical abilities, you can email Kristine at kris0373@aol.com or sign up by visiting our parish website <https://www.stjosephmillstone.org/music-ministry>

Let us always be willing to praise our loving God.

BAPTISMS

Baptisms are celebrated on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month at 12:30 PM (There are no Baptisms during Lent). Up to four families will be scheduled for each celebration of Baptism. If you would like to schedule Baptism for your child, please call the parish office 732-792-2270.

BAPTISM BIBS

At the Sacrament of Baptism for infants, a white Baptismal bib is given to each child as a symbol that they have been clothed with Christ. We have been blessed with parishioners who have lovingly made the bibs. This gives it a special meaning since they come from members of the community. If any of those who have so lovingly made the Baptism bibs can continue, that would be very much appreciated. New people who would like to make the bibs are also welcome. If you would like to see a sample, please see Fr. Mike. The Baptism bib is a symbol of the newly Baptized child putting on Christ. The purpose of having parishioners make the bibs instead of using prepackaged felt bibs, is to demonstrate that we are all connected in faith and as community. While making the bibs, many have prayed for the child who will receive it. If you have questions or just want some more information, contact Fr. Mike or see him after Mass. Thanks!

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Please sign up to serve at Mass. If Deacon Chris is present, we will need 2 Eucharistic Ministers. If Deacon Chris is not present, we will need 3 Eucharistic Ministers. The sign-up sheet is located on the bulletin board outside of the library. Thanks

LIVE STREAM OF MASS –

Masses are live streamed on Vimeo at <https://vimeo.com/event/106444>, on our parish website at www.stjosephmillstone.org/live-stream on our Facebook Page (although it seems that Facebook and Vimeo are not working well together so it is best to use YouTube or Vimeo) www.facebook.com/stjosephchurchmillstone and on the Parish YouTube channel www.youtube.com/c/StJosephChurchMillstoneTwp

LEGION OF MARY

Do you have a devotion to the Blessed Mother? Do you pray the rosary? The Legion of Mary, an international Catholic Ministry, will enrich your spiritual growth as well as benefitting others. We meet on Wednesdays after the 9:00AM Mass. Anyone in the parish is invited to come to find out more about the Legion of Mary. If anyone is interested in taking the Visiting Pilgrim statue of Mary to their home, contact Claire – 732-995-0969.

HELP US TO BE IN TOUCH WITH YOU

The Parish uses Flocknotes which is a program to send out email and text messages to parishioners. This will allow us to stay in touch about parish events, emergency closings and important information. To benefit from this, you must sign up with your cell phone number and/or email address. In the present time, it is important that we have a way to get news out to everyone. We will use Flocknotes to let parents know if Religious Education classes are canceled and we send out reminders about scheduled closings for holidays, etc. It is easy to be on the notification list – just text the code sjmill to 84576 and follow the prompts. You may also go to our website to be included – stjosephmillstone.org/flocknotes. Just enter your information and follow the prompts. You can then select the groups that you want information from. All information is confidential.

TRANSPORT PEOPLE FROM MILLSTONE MANOR TO CHURCH

On Sunday mornings, some of our parishioners transport residents of Millstone Manor to our Church for Mass. There is a need for some additional drivers to fill in the schedule. If you are willing to help, or want to find out more information, please contact Mickey at brunonap@AOL.com. THANKS

The Diocese of Trenton is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.
