Some thoughts from Fr. Mike...

Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus is asked a question: "Lord, will only a few be saved?" Perhaps the questioner desired some hard statistics from Jesus to set his mind at ease. It may have been much more satisfying to the one who asked to hear Jesus respond with a percentage – 15% or 40% or 60%. Instead of giving a number, Jesus shifts the focus to what is really essential for a person to be saved. Jesus shifted the whole thing back to the heart of the listener. He says, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate."

This is an important lesson for us. Salvation is not about statistics or comparing ourselves to others—it is about our own response to God's invitation. Salvation is always about how we open our hearts to hear and respond to God. The "narrow gate" reminds us that following Jesus is not always easy. It requires humility, sacrifice, repentance, and love. It is not enough to simply know about Jesus or to say that we were close to Him in some way. Jesus warns, "I do not know where you come from," to those who were near Him in life but did not truly open their hearts to Jesus or make a genuine attempt to live the message that Jesus proclaimed.

The narrow gate, then, is a call to authentic discipleship. It is not about outward appearances or empty words. It is not about good intentions with no effort to put Jesus' words into practice. It is about the kind of discipleship where a person is willing to live out their faith daily—through mercy, forgiveness, prayer, and acts of love.

And yet, Jesus also offers us great hope: "People will come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and will recline at table in the kingdom of God." With these words, Jesus says that God's mercy is wide, and God's invitation is for all. But entry into the feast is not automatic, it requires that we walk faithfully with Christ, choosing the way of the cross, the way of love, the way of the narrow gate.

How many will be saved? The answer does not really matter. What matters is whether we have settled for a shallow faith or have strived to live the faith we profess.

Let us ask the Lord for the grace not to settle for a faith that resides only on the surface of our being but to have a faith that has penetrated our hearts and caused us to live the Gospel message with courage and perseverance, so that when the gate opens, He may say to us, "Come, share in my Father's joy."

Peace, prayers and love,

Fr. Mike

TEA SOCIAL

The Ladies of St. Joseph will be hosting a Tea Social on Sunday, September 28, 2025, at 12 noon to 3 pm, in the Parish Hall. Our guest speaker, Michele LaRue will present "The Revolt of Mother" ...a story from America's Gilded Age and Progressive Era.

Long ago, Adoniram Penn promised his wife that he would build a proper house on their New England farm. He even showed her the spot. That was early in their marriage—two children ago. Now, as their eldest prepares for her wedding, the family still crams into the old, shabby cottage...and Father is building a barn where the new house should be. It's the last straw for Mother, and Father's in for a surprise.

All are welcome...bring a friend or two. Also, bring your favorite tea cup/saucer, or two. There will be several teas, finger sandwiches, scones, and pastries/cakes.

The cost will be $25 per person. Send checks made payable to "the Ladies of St. Joseph" to Jo Ann Kronenthal, 1 Cuomo Court, Millstone Township, NJ 08535.

Please register for this event by filling out the sign-up sheet on the table in the church vestibule or email to Jo Ann (Jannkronenthal@gmail.com). RSVP by September 14th.

OCIA – RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults – formerly known as the RCIA or Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a faith journey for those who wish to be Baptized, those who are Baptized and are interested in joining the Catholic Church and those who have not completed the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation). The OCIA is a journey of faith where people are encouraged to discern God's call in their lives. It is not a typical classroom setting. Our Catholic beliefs are introduced and explained and participants in the OCIA are encouraged to see how our beliefs, practices, Liturgies and Sacraments can have an impact in everyday situations. Anyone and everyone is invited to "come and see" to find out if the OCIA process is what you are being drawn to in your life. If you are interested or would like more information, contact Fr. Mike – fmike@stjosephmillstone.org or 732-792-2270.

READER'S CLUB

The Reader's Club has chosen "Tom Lake" by Ann Patchett.

"Tom Lake" is a 2023 novel by Ann Patchett, centered around Lara, a mother of three daughters, who recounts her youthful romance with a famous actor named Peter Duke to her daughters during the COVID-19 pandemic. The story unfolds as Lara's daughters, back home during the pandemic, press her for details about her past relationship, prompting reflections on love, family, and the passage of time. The setting is Michigan, so we tentatively made our theme American food. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, September 10 at 7:30PM. For more information about the Reader's Club or to RSVP contact Fran - ambiofran@gmail.com.

CHOIRS, CANTORS AND MUSIC MINISTRY

Do you like to sing? Do you use your voice to praise God? The parish choirs would love to have you join either the St. Choir or the Children's Choir. You do not need to be a professional singer. If you have a good voice and feel comfortable in leading singing, why not use your talent to be a Cantor at Mass? Can you play an instrument and are willing to put your talent to use as we gather to celebrate Mass? Perhaps you would like to join the contemporary group. These opportunities do not demand a lot of time – just a commitment and willingness. If you would like to become part of a choir, serve as a Cantor or lend your musical abilities, you can email Kristine at kris0373@aol.com or sign up by visiting our parish website <https://www.stjosephmillstone.org/music-ministry>

Let us always be willing to praise our loving God.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Please sign up to serve at Mass. If Deacon Chris is present, we will need 2 Eucharistic Ministers. If Deacon Chris is not present, we will need 3 Eucharistic Ministers. The sign-up sheet is located on the bulletin board outside of the library. Thanks

BAPTISMS

Baptisms are celebrated on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month at 12:30 PM (There are no Baptisms during Lent). Up to four families will be scheduled for each celebration of Baptism. If you would like to schedule Baptism for your child, please call the parish office 732-792-2270.

BAPTISM BIBS

Holy Baptism is the foundation of the entire
Christian life.

At the Sacrament of Baptism for infants, a white Baptismal bib is given to each child as a symbol that they have been clothed with Christ. We have been blessed with parishioners who have lovingly made the bibs. This gives it a special meaning since they come from members of the community. If any of those who have so lovingly made the Baptism bibs can continue, that would be very much appreciated. New people who would like to make the bibs are also welcome. If you would like to see a sample, please see Fr. Mike. The Baptism bib is a symbol of the newly Baptized child putting on Christ. The purpose of having parishioners make the bibs instead of using prepackaged felt bibs, is to demonstrate that we are all connected in faith and as community. While making the bibs, many have prayed for the child who will receive it. If you have questions or just want some more information, contact Fr. Mike or see him after Mass. Thanks!

LIVE STREAM OF MASS –

Masses are live streamed on Vimeo at <https://vimeo.com/event/106444>, on our parish website at www.stjosephmillstone.org/live-stream on our Facebook Page (although it seems that Facebook and Vimeo are not working well together so it is best to use YouTube or Vimeo) www.facebook.com/stjosephchurchmillstone and on the Parish YouTube channel www.youtube.com/c/StJosephChurchMillstoneTwp

LEGION OF MARY

Do you have a devotion to the Blessed Mother? Do you pray the rosary? The Legion of Mary, an international Catholic Ministry, will enrich your spiritual growth as well as benefitting others. We meet on Wednesdays after the 9:00AM Mass. Anyone in the parish is invited to come to find out more about the Legion of Mary. If anyone is interested in taking the Visiting Pilgrim statue of Mary to their home, contact Claire – 732-995-0969.

HELP US TO BE IN TOUCH WITH YOU

The Parish uses Flocknotes which is a program to send out email and text messages to parishioners. This will allow us to stay in touch about parish events, emergency closings and important information. To benefit from this, you must sign up with your cell phone number and/or email address. In the present time, it is important that we have a way to get news out to everyone. We will use Flocknotes to let parents know if Religious Education classes are canceled and we send out reminders about scheduled closings for holidays, etc. It is easy to be on the notification list – just text the code sjmill to 84576 and follow the prompts. You may also go to our website to be included – stjosephmillstone.org/flocknotes. Just enter your information and follow the prompts. You can then select the groups that you want information from. All information is confidential.

TRANSPORT PEOPLE FROM MILLSTONE MANOR TO CHURCH

On Sunday mornings, some of our parishioners transport residents of Millstone Manor to our Church for Mass. There is a need for some additional drivers to fill in the schedule. If you are willing to help, or want to find out more information, please contact Mickey at brunonap@AOL.com. THANKS

The Diocese of Trenton is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors.
