Dear Parishioners:

This weekend I am pleased that leaders of the Sant' Egidio Community will be speaking briefly at all the Masses. Here is link to more about the community in the United States, santegidiosa.org. Already about a dozen of our parishioners have participated with them in outreach ministry those on the streets of our neighborhood. This weekend, we will learn more about the lay community, their ministries, and how our parishioners might further collaborate on additional ministries in our parish such as with seniors and young adults.

We give thanks to God that the incidence of Covid in New York has dramatically decreased, and the vaccination percentages have steadily increased. The lifting of restrictions in New York will enable us to return, for the most part, to spacing and worship in both the Church and Chapel as we were before March 2020. Given that summer is upon us, and we are still only at about 50% of pre-COVID attendance at Sunday Masse, it will take us a while longer to see where are long-term on certain things. One item is certain, and I ask your help: In-person celebration together of the Eucharist on Sunday is at the center of our Catholic Christian community of faith. We need every parishioner to be an apostle, ambassador, inviter to his or her family, friends, neighbors, colleagues to encourage people to pray with us at Sunday Mass. The days when strict parishes boundaries determined where a person attends Mass are long gone. Please feel free to extend invitations to all to join us at the Chapel or Church. Our schedule of Masses schedule provides a range of opportunities – Saturday and Sunday afternoon at 5 p.m. at the Church, and Sunday morning and mid-day at the Chapel (8:00 a.m. & 12 Noon) and Church (10:00 a.m.).

Thanks to all who helped in our celebration last weekend of the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart. Parishioners seemed pleased that we recognized one of the patronal feasts of the parish, especially with the distribution and blessing of Sacred Hearts medals.

– Msgr. Kevin Sullivan

In your prayers, please remember Joseph and Robby Beckman, Daniel Bianco, and Joan Lanaro, who are ill, and for Tiffani Jones and Domenick Zerone, who have recently died.

Father's Day Prayer

Heavenly Father,
you entrusted your Son Jesus,
the child of Mary,
to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.
Bless all fathers
as they care for their families.
Give them strength and wisdom,
tenderness and patience;
support them in the work they must do,
protecting those who look to them,
as we look to you for love and salvation,
through Jesus Christ our rock and defender.
Amen.

Behind on your rent? The Emergency Rental Assistance Program can help.

Since the start of the Covid-19 pandemic, tenants have had protected by State and Federal moratoriums on eviction. The protection originally came from the Centers of Disease Control and has since been extended numerous times, most recently to June 30, 2021. Meanwhile, in New York State, the moratorium for renters has been extended through August 31, 2021. Until now, legislators have been kicking the rent-crisis down the road. But now it looks like the road is coming to an end - and there's good news.

Moratorium = a legal authorization to debtors to postpone payment

Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP)

ERAP is a New York State program that provides assistance for up to 12 months of rent arrears. It also provides up to 3 months of additional assistance for upcoming rent payments. The ERAP is available to New Yorkers regardless of immigration status. New York State has poured $2.4 billion into the fund.

Anyone can apply, though there are qualifications. A priority is being given to households that are at or below 50% of the median area income, but anyone in rent crisis can apply. The financial assistance will provide up to one year's worth of unpaid rent. The program also covers utilities (gas, electric, etc.). Because the program is capped at $2.4 billion, it may not be enough to help everyone, so those in need should apply soon.

The Scope of Need

Half a million New Yorkers lost their jobs during the pandemic. In February, ABC7 NY reported that the amount of rent that has gone unpaid has exceeded one billion dollars. They also reported that though the moratorium protects from eviction, landlords are still filing evictions to the courts, that the number of eviction suits filed impact NYC's poorest neighborhoods and are twice as high among Blacks and Latinos compared to Whites.

Almost 49,000 eviction cases have been filed in New York City housing court. How the courts will handle the overwhelming number of cases come September 1st is unknown.

Landlords have also had it rough. Generally speaking, smaller landlords who have tenants who could not pay rent have, in turn, been unable to pay their mortgages. Similarly, commercial tenants with fewer than 50 employees (the majority of independent businesses like restaurants, grocery stores, salons, etc.) have had challenges too.

Tenants, landlords and small business renters will all be helped by the new program.

How is Catholic Charities helping?

Catholic Charities Community Services (CCCS) is assisting clients by providing direct and indirect help with applications. They are also conducting outreach and education to tenants and landlords across Manhattan. CCCS has also partnered with 4 other New York City Community Based Organizations to reach as many tenants and landlords as possible to share more about the program and provide application assistance.

"ERAP is just another way that CCNY continues to meet the needs of New Yorkers", explained Lakisha Morris, the Director of Operations for Community Outreach Services at CCCS. "Keeping individuals and families in a safe and stable environment is one of our many goals as we help improve the lives of those we serve. When hard times arise, we continue to find ways to meet the needs of the most vulnerable. Being one of the providers of ERAP assistance is one of many ways we can meet those needs."
