Second Collection

A second collection will be taken up this weekend – the monthly collection for the restoration and maintenance of our parish buildings.

Homebound Parishioners

Please contact Virginia Hill (212.679.8166 Ext. 222) if you are unable to attend Mass and would like to receive Communion at home.

Home Mission Appeal

Next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral Work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet this faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Father's Day Triduum

Enrollment envelopes are available in the narthex of the Church and the lobby of the Chapel for you to enroll your fathers, living and deceased, to be remembered in a Triduum of Masses for Father's Day, Sunday, 19 June. Please return your envelopes by Friday, 17 June.

Latin America Collection

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religions formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Cardinal's Appeal

As of today, our parish has raised $41,805 in pledges towards our goal of $66,500. We have only $24,695 to go!

Join your fellow parishioners in supporting the Cardinal's Appeal today via www.cardinal'sappeal.org/donate In addition, did you know that the Appeal can benefit from employee matching gift programs? Take advantage of this benefit to double your donation and help us meet our parish goal!

Music Notes

After Easter Sunday and Christmas, the Solemnity of Pentecost ranks next in importance. It marks the culmination of the "Week of Weeks" which is the Easter season. Remember that this day, albeit the last day, is a day within the Easter season.

A unique aspect of this liturgy is its inclusion of a Sequence between the New Testament reading the Gospel Acclamation (Alleluia). The Church mandates that full participation in mass requires active engagement from the assembly, including singing. Even if you feel you are not a strong singer (which I assure you that you're just fine in God's eyes), please try to participate in the congregation singing in mass (hymns, psalm responses, Gloria, Sanctus, etc). Saint Augustine says that those who sing once, pray twice: I challenge you to ponder this mandate when attending weekend liturgies.

Communion Ultimo festvitatis die John 7:37

On the last day of the festival, Jesus stood and cried out: If anyone is thirsty let him come to me and drink, alleluia.

Motet at the Communion (10AM, 12PM) Tomás Luis de Victoria (1548-1611)

Dum complerentur dies Pentecostes,
Errant omnes in eodem loco
Et factus est repente de cælo sonus tanquam spiritus vehementis,
Et replevit totam domum, Alleluia.

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come,
They were all with one accord in one place.
And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind,
And it filled all the house.

Acts 2:1-2

Song at the Communion (5PM)

I. There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place, and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.
There are sweet expressions on each face,
And I know they feel the presence of the Lord.
Refrain

II. There are blessings you cannot receive
Till you know Him in His fullness, and believe.
You're the one to profit when you say,
"I am going to walk with Jesus all the way."
Refrain

III. If you say He saved you from your sin,
Now you're weak, you're bound,
and cannot enter in,
You can make it right if you will yield;
You'll enjoy the Holy Spirit that we feel.
Refrain
