Sober Saint Patrick's Day

Thank you to our parishioners and community members who participated in our sober Saint Patrick's Day celebration.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTORAL ADMINISTRATOR

Next Sunday officially has the title "Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion." It is okay to go with the shorter "Palm Sunday". In any case it begins the most solemn week of our Christian year.

All our Masses next Sunday will begin outside with the distribution and blessing of Palms. We will then process into the Church or Chapel in commemoration of the triumphant entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem. The holding of Palms and hearing of the Passion from St. Matthew's Gospel are a major focus of this Palm Sunday.

The 40-day season of Lent ends on the Wednesday of Holy Week, as we then enter into the Sacred Three Days of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday.

The entire three days focus on the death and resurrection of Jesus, but with a different take:

HOLY THURSDAY remembers the command of Jesus that his disciples eat his body and drink his blood in the Eucharistic bread and wine until he comes again. Each Mass makes present the living risen Lord who died on the cross for us. It can almost seem blasphemous that inserted in this most Eucharistic liturgy is a most secular ritual of washing dirty feet and yet it is in imitation of Jesus washing feet during his sacred last Passover supper.

GOOD FRIDAY – We venerate the wood of the cross on which hung the Saviour of the world. No Mass is celebrated. The solemn passion from St. John's Gospel is sung and the congregation silently and solemnly venerates the cross.

HOLY SATURDAY – Alleluia is again sung as on the third day we rejoice and celebrate that life triumphs over death, and Jesus is raised to new life. The deadly defeat of the crucifixion is transformed into the victory of the resurrection.

Please check the schedule in the bulletin or website, and join for as many of these liturgies as possible.

Thank you,

Msgr. Kevin Sullivan Pastoral Administrator

5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

You cannot see the face of God and live. – Exodus 33:20

This verse from Exodus sounds frightening at first glance. It is not that God will strike you down if you were to see Him; rather, the vision is so exquisitely awesome we could not cope with it. 1 Corinthians 13:12, "For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face," suggests that seeing dimly might spare us from such an awe-filled vision. Meditating with the verse enabled me to understand it from an additional perspective.

The Divine is everywhere. The Spirit will inspire you to die to self and self-centered ways of seeing and living when given a glimpse of God's mighty goodness and love. You will begin to grasp the extraordinary beauty around you. Perhaps you will glimpse the glory of the sunset, the flower, and even the homeless person you encounter in our city.

How can you grasp a glimpse of it? Lent offers us three practices to shed self-centered habits:

1) PRAYER – This opens our line of communication with the Divine.

2) FASTING – This helps us scale down the layers of things we absorb into our mind, body, and Spirit, leaving "breathing space for the work of the Spirit.

3) ALMSGIVING – This provides an experience to see and follow Jesus' example as He journeyed to share the invitation to embrace the Father's Love.

- Kathleen Ullman

Why do we sing at Mass?

In our participation in word and song, Christ is revealed and made present to us. Our singing serves as a crucial part of the greater mystery we are celebrating: Christ's sacrifice being united to the Father through the Holy Spirit. Why sing at Mass? To make this a reality!

We may not always be in the mood to sing. Perhaps our hearts are heavily burdened with fear and despair, especially in our current world, seemingly torn by strife, sickness, and racism. In the document Sing to the Lord, the U.S. bishops speak well of our participation and the occasional challenges we face when singing at Mass:

"Sometimes, our voices do not correspond to the convictions of our hearts. At other times, we are distracted or preoccupied by the cares of the world. But Christ always invites us to enter into song, to rise above our own preoccupations, and to give our entire selves to the hymn of his Paschal Sacrifice for the honor and glory of the Most Blessed Trinity."

Perhaps this Lent, we may challenge ourselves to more actively participate in the liturgy by acknowledging our call to engage in both word and song.

Homily

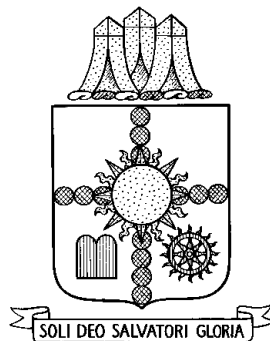

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

WONDROUS LOVE

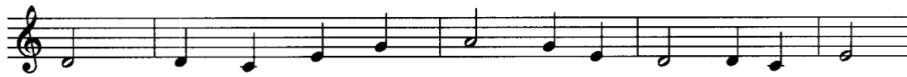

1. What won - drous love is this, O my soul, O my soul?
2. To God and to the Lamb I will sing, I will sing;
3. And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on, I'll sing on;

What won - drous love is this, O my soul?
To God and to the Lamb, I will sing;
And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on;

What won - drous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss
To God and to the Lamb who is the great I Am,
And when from death I'm free, I'll sing and joy - ful be,

To bear the dread - ful curse for my soul, for my soul;
While mil - lions join the theme, I will sing, I will sing;
And through e - ter - ni - ty I'll sing on, I'll sing on!

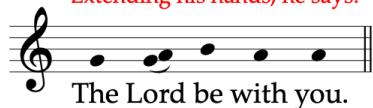

To bear the dread - ful curse for my soul?
While mil - lions join the theme, I will sing.
And through e - ter - ni - ty I'll sing on.

that my sacrifice and yours
may be acceptable to God,
