Crafted from the foundation beams of our Church, we continue to build up the reign of God with living stones. Jesus Christ is our true cornerstone.

Dear Friends,

Traditionally, this Gospel has been used to talk about vocations to the priestly and religious life. While it can apply to these specific roles of service in the Church, to exclusively read the laborers in the harvest as priests and religious undermines the power of Jesus' message. His commission of the seventy two disciples must be read over and against his commissions to the twelve. The seventy are called to be evangelizers, to go and prepare the way for Jesus to visit the surrounding villages and towns. This commission is for the whole community. It is the priesthood of all believers. The twelve are later commissioned to serve as leaders of the community.

Through baptism we have all been commissioned to go out to live and proclaim the Good News of Christ, to keep journeying on to all our sisters and brothers and prepare the way for Christ to come into their lives. The number of laborers for this harvest has never been greater. We have never had more Christians in the world than we have right now. If all of us who have been baptized in Christ were living out the Gospel and bringing it to bear in our personal, family, social, and national life, then the world would be transformed. As Gandhi once said, "I would take the waters of Christian baptism tomorrow if I saw Christians living out what they profess to believe." We seem to have lost our courage, our nerve for the task at hand. We have been consumed by sheepishness and daunted by the wolves.

Jesus reminds us that to live out this commission we need to depend on each other for support, hospitality, and kindness. He challenges us to travel light and stick together.

So let us pray at our Eucharist this week for ourselves, laborers who are putting in a hard day's work in the harvest. Let us pray for the gift of faith and gratitude for the privilege of the commission. Let us also pray that all baptized people will live out their faith in such a manner that it prepares the way for the Christ to come in every village and town.

In Christ,

Jeff Peck

Our parish congratulates, celebrates, honors, and is proud of you. Be proud of yourself; respect yourself; honor and build on your achievements; find great joy in this milestone along your path of life and continue to use your creativity, initiative, and knowledge to seek your dreams. Live, love, and serve ever fully. Inspire and transform our world in who you are. God's Spirit of wonder, compassion, peace, and beauty dwells within you...is enfleshed in your soul. Remember who you are and from where you have come. And know you are always at home among us.

Birthright, a pregnancy support service, is presently in need of size 3 and 4 diapers which are not affordable to our clients during these difficult times. Please leave your donations at hurch. Thank you and May God Bless you for sharing and caring about others in need.
