The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones is a beautiful and wonderful part of our Catholic tradition. Mass Intention forms can be found in our parish office, or online at www.saintmartindp.org/mass-intentions

He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly...

As we draw close to the final two months of the Church Calendar and Ordinary Time, the message of the Lord is brought into a sharper focus. The season of Ordinary Time is denoted not simply with the liturgical color of green symbolizing hope. The season is also marked heavily with the feast days of so many saints. One of the reasons we call this season Ordinary Time is because the feasts of the saints remind us the manner of life which ought to be ordinary to us as faithful Catholics. This is the reminder of what it looks like when we live a life close to the Lord. In the Gospel, the Lord engages the disciples, specifically Peter, and tells him what a life with Him will mean. By choosing to respond to the Lord and by accepting His gift of salvation, we are at the same time rejecting the way of the world. The Lord is not willing to leave us where He finds us, regardless of our situation in life. When we encounter Him we will end up making a decision. For or against Him? By choosing the world and the ways of the world, we are choosing against the Lord. The Lord draws this point out for us when He further demonstrates that to follow Him while in this world will cause us suffering. This suffering will come from the elders, chief priests, and scribes. What the Lord is asking of us will be different from the ideas handed down by other authorities. The Lord never asks us to do something which He has not first done for us, and this is no different with the crosses of our daily life. The other aspect of what the Lord asks of us is that we follow after Him. When we actively choose to live a life after the pattern of the Lord, we are choosing to make His mind, His will, His choices, be the reason we do things rather than our own mind, our own will, our own choices. His priorities become our priorities. Right now, we are being asked to assist our brothers and sisters through the Annual Diocesan Appeal. We have an opportunity to put on the mind of Christ through the service of our brothers and sisters in prisons, in schools, in poverty. By prioritizing the marginalized among us, we too are living the example given us by Christ that all persons share in the dignity of humanity which He has given us. The world may choose to devalue them, but the Lord has rejected the spirit of the world. When we make Christ our model, when we make Christ our focus, when our life is a reflection of Him, this is how God is praised!

Gratitude and Support for the Clergy – through the healthy and holy formation and education of men for the priesthood and permanent diaconate and caring for retired and infirm priests.

Outreach to Rural and Needy Parishes and Schools – through operating grants for faith formation and youth programming, priest salaries, utilities assistance and many other needs.
