He threw aside his cloak... and followed Him on the way.

Blindness and lameness are two ways of speaking not only of physical conditions in our life but also a description of our soul, our relationship with the Lord due to sin. We all suffer from a lack of wholeness before the Lord at times in our life. Original Sin along with our personal sins have the result of a darkening of our intellect and a weakening of our will. We can easily lose perspective and fall into "tunnel vision". A darkening has happened and our lived experience can reinforce the narrowing of our sight. When we feel stuck, when we feel confused, when we feel lost, what we are experiencing is a form of this blindness. We too must cry out to the Lord, "Have pity on me, have mercy on me!" Do we recognize that we have become blind and are in need of sight, the sight that only the Lord can provide? Do we want to see? Maybe what we have been desiring is not sight for our blindness but rather that the world or others in my life change their sight to be like unto mine. When Bartimaeus threw off his cloak he was abandoning his former way of life. This was his response to hearing the Lord call him to Himself. When the Lord heals his physical blindness we are told that his spiritual blindness has also been healed. The Lord instructs Bartimaeus to, "go your way," and Bartimaeus followed Him on the way! His way was now the Lord's way. This is an example of conversion and healing. When we respond to the call of the Lord and are willing to recognize our own blindness and desire to be healed and change our life from our old ways, this is faith. This is the proper ground from which miracles happen. Being perfect is not a prerequisite for faith or for healing. Responding to the Lord, throwing off our cloak of an old life and being willing to follow Him, is a lived faith. Have we taken sufficient advantage of the sacrament of Confession? The Lord offers us His mercy and healing if we are willing to recognize that we too have blindness in our life. The Lord has indeed done great things for us; we are filled with joy!

Fr. Stephen Hawek

The Solemnity of All Saints Thursday, November 1

Masses at 8:30 AM and 6:30 PM

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church, celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven.

Please note that the Parish Office will be closed on November 1.

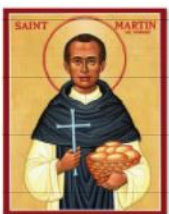

Join us for our Saint Martín de Porres Feast Day Festival!

Sunday, November 4
12:30-3:00 PM

We hope you'll join us for a celebration of the life and works of Saint Martin de Porres! We will embrace the Peruvian Culture, so feel free to get festive!

There will be live music, and food for purchase (cash or check only). Our celebration will take place in the circle in front of the school.

Pope Gregory XVI beatified Martin de Porres on October 29, 1837, and nearly 125 years later, Pope John XXIII canonized him in Rome on May 6, 1962. He is the patron saint of people of mixed race, and of innkeepers, barbers, public health workers and more.

Diocese of Fort Worth 50th Anniversary Illustrated Book

Over the past two years, North Texas Catholic reporter and local author Jerry Circelli and the Diocesan Communications Office have been collaborating on the publication of a history book to celebrate the impending 50th Anniversary of the establishment of the Catholic Diocese of Fort Worth by Blessed Pope Paul VI. This illustrated book is being produced in collaboration with Catholic Publishers, Éditions du Signe.

The book will convey the history of the Church in the 28-county part of North Texas that makes up the Diocese of Fort Worth. This book has been conceived and designed with parishioners in mind. It is the Diocese's hope that this publication would be helpful in understanding our past for the sake of charting the course of the Diocese's life into the future.

A copy of the book is on display in our Parish Office, as well as order forms if you are interested in purchasing a copy. The cost of each book is $35.
