Congratulations, 2019 Graduates! On Sunday, June 2nd at the 11:30 AM Mass, we will honor and recognize the milestone of graduation for all graduates in our St. Martin de Porres parish family (8th grade, high school, college, grad school, etc.). We will be reserving seats for the graduates and their immediate families, so please RSVP to ParishLife@saintmartindp.org by Thursday, May 30th if you wish to participate. Thank you!

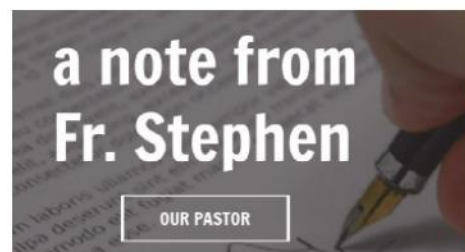

May is the month for planning. We plan our Memorial Day cookout menus, we plan our children's activities, we plan our summer travel. But have you planned your giving to St. Martin de Porres?

By enrolling in eGiving through Faith Direct you can plan your giving through the summer so your gifts will reach St. Martin de Porres even when you cannot, and our ministries can continue uninterrupted.

Simply visit faith.direct/TX706 to sign up today!

This is how all will know that you are my disciples...

When Judas had left, Jesus said, “Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him.” It would be easy to gloss over this part of our Gospel and run straight to the end. What does Judas leaving, and Jesus being glorified have to do with the way Jesus loves us? As it turns out, it has everything to do with the way in which Jesus loves.

During this 13th chapter of John’s Gospel the last supper is underway, and Judas has identified himself as the Lord’s betrayer. Judas has left in order to betray the Lord. The hour has come. The long-awaited hour of the Lord’s suffering and eventual death and resurrection has finally come. The entire time our Lord has been on the earth, has been incarnate, has been building to this moment. The Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him, through this moment when Judas leaves and betrays the Lord. It is in the Lord’s suffering and betrayal which His love is lived. In His suffering He is glorified. This is how He loves us.

The new commandment which He gives us to love one another as He has loved us cannot be separated from His passion, death, and resurrection. He gives us this new commandment immediately following the declaration of His glorification, God’s glorification, through suffering for the love of God and man. He does not give this commandment after the washing of the feet which has taken place prior. We can care for each other through service to the other and we should care for each other in this manner. But the Lord’s commandment to love one another is understood in the way He has loved us, through willingly and patiently suffering for the sake of love of the Father and man.

How well do we love in the manner that Christ loved us? Do I accept the sufferings in my life and offer them to God for the salvation of others and myself? Do I recognize that in suffering, Christ loved me and as I draw closer to Him my life will reflect Him and His life? Parents suffer for their children every day and do so willingly because they love them and desire the best for their children. How much more does the Lord love me? Often children will reflect the behavior of their parents. If God is our Father through Jesus Christ, then our love should reflect the same love He has shown for us. Love one another as I have loved you.

Congratulations to all of the children of our parish and school who received the sacrament of First Communion last weekend! Several children are preparing to receive in the near future as well, so please keep them in your prayers.

Weekly Stewardship Reflection

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34)

It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes strength and courage to love someone when we feel unappreciated, used or feel our opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage to "love my neighbor" when he may be someone I don't like, someone I don't know or someone that doesn't look like me.

So far, 70 families from St. Martin de Porres have pledged $24,607.47 towards our parish goal of $32,500.
