A Note from our Pastor Fr. Stephen Hauck

Merry Christmas! And welcome to the Family!

A very Merry Christmas to you and your family. We hear in our Gospel of what might seem like a familiar event to many of us, the birth of the Lord. Sometimes when something is familiar, we can either gloss over it letting it wash over us as our mind focuses on other things, or it can be an opportunity to delve deeper and unpack it. I hope this is an opportunity for you to delve a little deeper this year!

We are reminded that in those days decrees for the whole world were being sent out by Ceasar Augustus and that the world complied. Where is Ceasar Augustus today or his heirs? We are reminded that he no longer reigns. He no longer gives decrees and the world little cares. Ceasar Augustus and his rule, once powerful have been thrown off. Quirinius is only remembered by how totally irrelevant he truly is in comparison to what has taken place in his midst.

The truly King of all Creation has been born into the world, which will forever date itself from this event. The One who will issue decrees that shape eternity has slipped into creation amidst the pretend and momentary self-proclaimed rulers. He has come in humility and poverty to invite the lowly and those deprived to share in His true sovereignty and wealth.

On Sunday, we will celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. When the Lord calls us together and we respond to His decree and invitation, we are made a family. Mary and Joseph are made His parents by Him. We too are one family when we are baptized into Him. Many of us will join with our families this Christmas, and remember fondly the Christmases of the past along with other family memories. May we also remember the moments of faith when the Lord drew us together with Him and in Him. We are a family not by chance or whim. We are a family because He has made us a family and we are thankful!

Fr. Stephen Hauck

Weekly Stewardship Reflection

"Wives, be subordinate to your husbands... Husbands, love your wives... Children, obey your parents in everything... Fathers, do not provoke your children..."
COLOSSIANS 3:18-21

Pope Francis said that families, through their life of prayer and love, become "schools of true human growth." Being credible witnesses of Christian love, especially that of family members, exerts the most positive influence on our children. We are all children of God, let us pray and love each other as God, Our Father, does for us.

Weekly Stewardship Reflection

"Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." MATTHEW 2:11

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image that we should all try to follow each day. In gratitude for all that we have been given, we are called to generously share all of our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be generous with everything, but especially that one thing that means the most to you.
