Mass Schedule Changes

Since we are not expecting to receive an additional priest until sometime this summer, unfortunately, the 4:30 PM Sunday Mass and Tuesday Daily Mass will not be able to continue. The final 4:30 PM Sunday Mass will be this Sunday, February 18th. Please continue to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood. Our parish is growing very quickly, and it is imperative to have your help. If you have not had an opportunity to register with St. Martin de Porres, please do so. This helps us to adequately plan and to meet our parishioners' needs. Parish Registration Forms can be found in the Narthex or on our website.

Eucharistic Adoration

"In God's will, there is peace." - Saint Josephine Bakhita

Lent is a time for reflection and transformation. It's a time to reorient our lives from "our will" to God's Will. How does one do that?

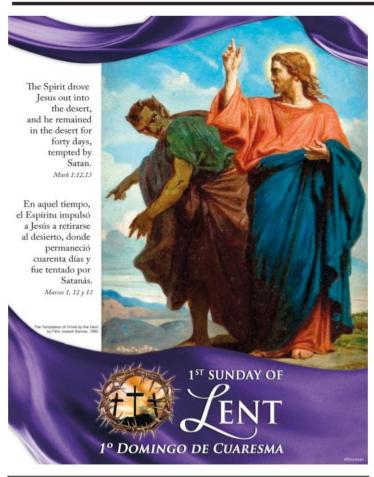

Come into the Real Presence of our Lord in the Eucharist during our many hours of Eucharistic Adoration, and talk with the One who created you, the One who loves you beyond all things, the One who has the perfect plan for your life.

Jesus is waiting to for YOU. Do you not have but one hour for Him?

The Season of

Began on February 14th with Ash Wednesday, and ends on March 28th as the Mass of the Lord's Supper begins (Holy Thursday).

What are we required to Abstain from on Fridays?

Abstain: restrain oneself from doing or enjoying.

Space for the little ones... 1st Sunday of Lent

The Book of Genesis 9:8-15

"This is the sign that I am giving for all ages to come, of the covenant between me and you and every living creature with you:

I set my bow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth."

Responsorial Psalm:

I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.

1st Letter of St. Peter 3:18-22

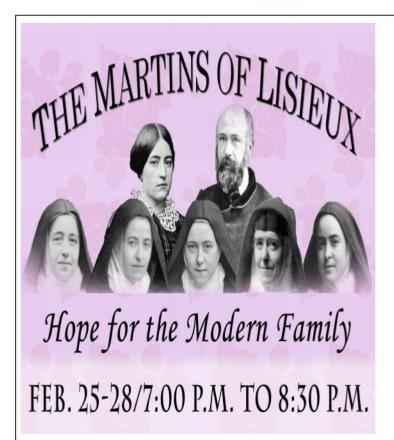

Christ suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God.

Gospel according to St. Mark 1:12-15

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand.

Repent, and believe in the gospel.

MEMORANDUM

"The Diocese of Fort Worth has been informed by the Diocese of Austin that Rev. Anthony Odiong, a priest of the Diocese of Uyo, Nigeria, is believed to be residing within the Diocese of Austin and is engaging with parishioners and participating in unsanctioned events without permission. Rev. Odiong has been instructed by the Diocese of Austin not to engage in ministry, visit parishes, or engage with parishioners within the Diocese of Austin. Rev. Odiong has been recalled by his bishop in Nigeria but has failed to comply with the directive to return to his home diocese.

Rev. Odiong does not have faculties to engage in ministry in the Diocese of Fort Worth. He does not have permission to engage with parishioners or participate in events within our Diocese. We ask that you decline to attend any event at which Rev. Odiong may be present or involved. Please contact your pastor to advise of such invitations or events within our Diocese."

One Hour One Purpose Our Children

EVERY WEDNESDAY | 2:30-3:30PM SMdP CHAPEL

Join our community of mothers, grandmothers, Godmothers, and spiritual mothers as we gather weekly, inspired by Saint Monica, for an hour of prayer. Together, we uplift our children who have strayed from the faith or are facing worldly influences. Bring a rosary and an open heart as we seek strength, joy, and a return to the beautiful Catholic faith.

Remembering Vocations in your Lenten Devotions—2024

Meditation in the words of His Holiness, Pope Francis:

"Dear friends, Lent is the favorable season for renewing our encounter with Christ, living in his word, in the sacraments and in our neighbor. The Lord, who overcame the deceptions of the Tempter during the forty days in the desert, shows us the path we must take." "Let us pray for one another so that, by sharing in the victory of Christ, we may open our doors to the weak and poor. Then we will be able to experience and share to the full the joy of Easter."

Weekly Meditations

February 14, Ash Wednesday

"...Lent offers us a providential opportunity to deepen the meaning and value of our Christian lives, and it stimulates us to rediscover the mercy of God so that we, in turn, become more merciful toward our brothers and sisters."

Benedict XVI

February 18, First Sunday in Lent

"We are continually immersed in God's merciful grace like the air that permeates us. ... Do not pray for easy lives; pray to be stronger people. Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers; pray for powers equal to your tasks." Blessed Solanus Casey O.F.M. Cap.

February 25, Second Sunday in Lent

"The more Eucharist we receive, the more we will become like Jesus, so that on this earth we will have a foretaste of Heaven." Bl. Carlo Acutis

March 3, Third Sunday in Lent

"If, in accomplishing a good deed, we do not have as our goal God's glory and the real well being of our brothers and sisters, looking rather for a return of personal interest or simply of applause, we place ourselves outside of the Gospel vision. In today's world of images, attentive vigilance is required, since this temptation is great."

Benedict XVI

March 10, Fourth Sunday in Lent

"The Church's mission is enlivened by a spirituality of constant exodus. We are challenged to go forth from our own comfort zone in order to reach all the peripheries in need of the light of the Gospel. The Church's mission impels us to undertake a constant pilgrimage across the various deserts of life, through the different experiences of hunger and thirst for truth and justice." Pope Francis

March 17, Fifth Sunday in Lent

We pray for men of vision and courage to lead the Lord's flock. In the words of Blessed Rev. Stanley Rother, Martyr: "The shepherd cannot run."

March 24, Palm Sunday

"The saints are like the stars. In his providence Christ conceals them in a hidden place that they may not shine before others when they might wish to do so. Yet they are always ready to exchange the quiet of contemplation for the works of mercy as soon as they perceive in their heart the invitation of Christ." St. Anthony of Padua

March 29, Good Friday

"This is what we are about: We plant the seeds that one day will grow. We water seeds already planted, knowing that they hold future promise." Ken Untener, Bishop of Saginaw

Recite the Vocations Prayer following each week's meditations:

O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech you, through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph, her spouse, St. Junipero Serra, and all the saints, an increase of laborers for your Church, fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Amen.

Financial Notes

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Below you will find a financial snapshot for our parish comparing the first six months of fiscal year 2023 to the first six months of fiscal year 2022, as well as look at average weekly attendance for the same two periods. Comparing the two periods, we have seen an increase in attendance of approximately 15%, which is wonderful and speaks to the vibrant and growing community we have here. However, despite this increase, our offertory contributions have remained relatively constant.

Your financial support is crucial for the functioning of our parish — maintaining our sacred spaces and facilities, providing catechesis and faith formation, extending outreach services to those in need - to name but a few. By reassessing our tithing commitments, we can ensure the continued growth and flourishing of our community. During this Lenten season, we prepare our hearts to think sacrificially in reflection of our Lord's sacrifice. I invite you to take some time to prayerfully reflect on your tithing amount.

Sincerely,

Fr. Stephen Hauck

Va. Styther Hanck
