Stewardship Corner

Stewardship Begins with Gratitude

“He saw and believed.” - John 20:8

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala comes to the tomb early in the morning, while it is still dark, and finds the stone removed. She runs to Simon Peter and the other disciple, and together they run to the tomb. They see the burial cloths left behind, the head covering rolled up separately - signs that something extraordinary has happened. The Gospel tells us: “He saw and believed.” Yet even then, they did not fully understand.

Easter begins in this moment - in the darkness, in the searching, in the running toward something not yet fully understood. It begins with an encounter that gradually opens the heart to belief.

Throughout our Lenten journey, we reflected on gratitude - recognizing that everything we have comes first from God. Easter reveals the fullness of that truth. In Christ, God does not give partially or conditionally. He gives completely. Through His suffering, death, and Resurrection, He gives everything.

This gift is not only something we celebrate - it is something we are invited to respond to. When we truly encounter the risen Lord, our hearts are changed. Gratitude moves from something we feel to something we live.

Like the disciples, we are invited to run toward Christ, to see more clearly, and to grow in belief. The Resurrection calls us to respond in how we live each day - in the way we give our time, share our gifts, and love those around us. Our lives become an offering back to the One who has given us everything.

As we begin this Easter season, we are invited to reflect on a simple but powerful question:

He gave everything. How will you respond?

St. Martin de Porres Catholic Church invites you to a special presentation!

"I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially poor sinners ... The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment."

Jesus to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska (Diary 699)

To Receive The Extraordinary Grace Of This Feast: the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the vigil celebration) by making a good confession beforehand (during Lent is fine) and staying in a state of grace, and to receive with great trust in Divine Mercy. Everyone is also encouraged to venerate the Divine Mercy Image and perform works of mercy in deed, word, and prayer.

April Child Abuse Prevention Month

AS CATHOLICS, WE MUST CONTINUE TO BE MODELS OF ABUSE PREVENTION EVERY DAY, INDEED EVERY HOUR. OUR COMMITMENT MUST BE ONGOING AND RESOLUTE. EFFORTS TO PREVENT ABUSE AND TO SAFEGUARD ALL WHO SEEK TO JOIN OUR PARISH AND SCHOOL COMMUNITIES CAN NEVER BE ABANDONED FOR AN EASIER WAY.

-MOST REVEREND MICHAEL F. OLSON

A PRAYER FOR HEALING VICTIMS OF ABUSE

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong,
always present, always just;
You gave your only Son to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace,
join to your own suffering
the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit
by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them.
Soothe their restless hearts with hope,
steady their shaken spirits with faith.
Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds
and transform brokenness into wholeness.
Grant us the courage and wisdom,
humility and grace, to act with justice.
Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.
Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
