He Gave Everything. How Will You Respond?

“Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’” - John 20:19

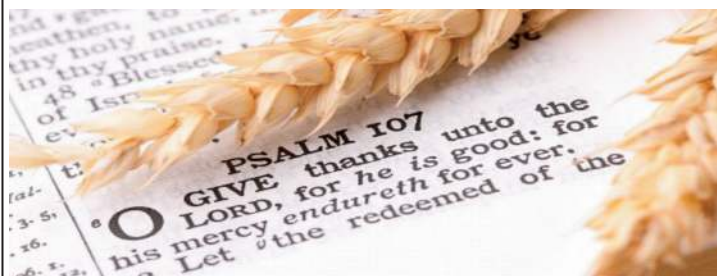

On the evening of that first Easter, the disciples were gathered behind locked doors, filled with fear and uncertainty. Jesus comes into their midst and offers them a simple but powerful gift: peace. He does not begin with correction or judgment, but with mercy, reassurance, and welcome. In that moment, the risen Lord shows them that His love is greater than their fear.

Divine Mercy Sunday reminds us that we are first recipients of this mercy. Jesus meets us where we are, offers us peace, and calls us into relationship with Him. With grateful hearts, we recognize that we have been welcomed, forgiven, and loved by God. Gratitude for this mercy changes how we see ourselves — as beloved sons and daughters of the Father — and it begins to shape how we see others.

This mercy, received with gratitude, naturally leads to a response. Are we good at making others feel welcome? When we meet someone new — a neighbor, a colleague, or a parishioner — do we help them feel at home? Simple gestures of kindness and hospitality reflect the mercy we ourselves have received. They help others feel included rather than excluded and strengthen the relationships we are made for.

Christ gave everything for us, pouring out His mercy and love. When we receive that gift with gratitude, we are called to share it with others — offering peace, welcome, and compassion in our daily lives.

He gave everything. How will you respond?

April Child Abuse Prevention Month

AS CATHOLICS, WE MUST CONTINUE TO BE MODELS OF ABUSE PREVENTION EVERY DAY, INDEED EVERY HOUR. OUR COMMITMENT MUST BE ONGOING AND RESOLUTE. EFFORTS TO PREVENT ABUSE AND TO SAFEGUARD ALL WHO SEEK TO JOIN OUR PARISH AND SCHOOL COMMUNITIES CAN NEVER BE ABANDONED FOR AN EASIER WAY.

-MOST REVEREND MICHAEL F. OLSON

10 Ten Ways to prevent child abuse

1

Teach children how to help keep themselves safe and protected.

2

Open lines of communication with our children so they can talk about their concerns.

3

Maintain safe environment compliance certifications for people who have contact with or access to our children.

4

Examine our own behavior and ensure that we, as safe adults, model appropriate boundaries and behavior for our children and the children in our ministries.

5

Minimize opportunities for abuse or violation of boundaries. Choose group settings where possible. Monitor children's internet use.

6

Discipline children thoughtfully and calmly, not when the adult caregiver is angry.

7

Recognize signs and symptoms of child abuse - remember five steps taught in the Safe Environment Awareness sessions.

8

Report concerns for abuse.

9

Invest in our children. Give your time and talent and cultivate healthy relationships with the children in our Diocese.

10

Encourage parental participation in children and youth activities.

THE PINWHEEL IS THE NATIONAL SYMBOL FOR CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION EFFORTS. IT REPRESENTS THE INNOCENCE, JOY AND FUN WHICH SHOULD BE THE EXPERIENCE OF ALL CHILDREN.

When things seemed like too much to handle, my Stephen Minister brought normalcy and calm. James
