

A Time for Healing Worksheet

The ending of any marriage is a traumatic experience. The adjustments which follow can either be positive or negative; but always difficult. One of the ways the Catholic Church offers help to those who have gone through a divorce, is to achieve healing and closure through a Petition for a Declaration of Nullity of Marriage. To begin this journey of healing, please complete and return this worksheet in a sealed envelope to the parish office.

Please provide name, city and state of Diocese Marriage Tribunal _____				Protocol No. _____
If multiple prior marriages please list names of all former spouses, date of marriage and final divorcee date on separate sheet of paper and return with this worksheet.

A Petition for a Declaration of Nullity of Marriage can take up to a year or longer from the time all paperwork and documents are submitted to the Tribunal. It is and remains the policy of the Tribunal, in the Diocese of St. Petersburg, not to accept a 'Petition for a Declaration of Nullity of Marriage' until one year has elapsed from the date the final divorce decree was granted. When two or more marriages have ended in divorce, whether in or outside the Catholic Church, it is the policy of the Tribunal not to accept these petitions until at least two years have elapsed from the date of the most recent divorce. (Since November 10, 1989)

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

- A Baptismal Certificate
 - If baptized Catholic, you will need to obtain a recently dated Baptismal Certificate with Notations from the Catholic Church where you were baptized. The certificate must be dated in the last six months and carry a church seal.
 - If baptized Non-Catholic Christian/Protestant: a copy of your baptismal certificate or other proof of baptism is sufficient
- Copy of Current Civil Marriage License (if currently married, from the state where you were married)

All previous marriage(s) are submitted and reviewed at the same time to the Marriage Tribunal. Each marriage requires the following documentation and it would be most helpful to begin obtaining these documents at the start of this process:

- Copy of Civil Marriage License (from the state where you were married to former spouse)
- Copy of Religious Marriage Certificate (if applicable)
- Copy of Final Divorce Decree (if applicable)
- Copy of Death Certificate (if applicable)
- Copy of the Declaration of Nullity (if applicable)

Return the completed Worksheet, in a sealed envelope, to the parish office OR email to frchristian@ladyrosary.org

A member of our team will contact you to set up an intake meeting to discuss the next steps in this process. You may bring any of the Required Documents you have obtained to this first meeting.

God Bless You on this Journey!
