

Second Sunday of LENT

*Jesus is transfigured
in the presence
of Peter, James,
and John.*

Mark 9:2-10

Nothing that we can do, nothing which can happen to us, no circumstance, no condition, no state of being, nothing can keep God from loving us. The brutality of people to one another does not prevent God from loving the weak and downtrodden. Nor can death overcome His love. Yet love is something which must be freely received and freely given. The perfection of love can only exist if the one who is loved returns love back. So unless we give ourselves completely to God, we will not know the fullness of love, though it surrounds us in every moment.

Father Joseph
