When the Holy Spirit and the Power of God descended on the disciples at Pentecost, they burst forth from their hiding places and boldly proclaimed Jesus Christ as the Savior of the World. The Spirit of Adoption poured out on the Church likewise enables us to call God our Father and to live, not just our own lives, but the life of Christ within us who trust in Him. The gift of the Holy Spirit is not static, however, so that having received it, we need no more. Rather, the Spirit is eternally active: the living stream of God's love and grace, God Himself. So we still cry out Come Holy Spirit!

Father Joseph
