

Jesus asked James and John if they could share in His chalice and His baptism. It was an attractive proposal, to join in the most intimate facets of our Lord's life and ministry. The holy sacraments of Baptism and Eucharist fulfill this proposal to some degree. But our Lord was not simply talking about the Sacraments themselves, but about the very things which these Sacraments make present to us— His Passion and Death by which He won for us eternal salvation. We are called to an intimacy with Christ which far exceeds table fellowship or the profession of faith that He is God. We are invited to share the whole Christ, Cross and Glory.
Father Joseph

Diocesan officials have been alerted that some of our Catholic faithful have received phone calls from individuals identifying themselves as members of Catholic groups supporting a particular candidate for president. This group is telling callers that they have the permission of their parish pastor to make the calls. Please be advised that neither Bishop Farrell nor any of our pastors in the Diocese of Dallas have given permission or endorsed for any Catholic group in the diocese to make partisan endorsements of any candidate or political party. All Catholics are encouraged to register to vote and exercise their right to vote following their informed conscience. For more information visit www.cathdal.org.

Novena Masses for All Souls

If you would like your loved ones remembered, complete the All Souls envelope located in the Narthex. You may return the envelope to the parish office or place it in the collection basket.

Did you know? The Knights of Columbus work around the globe to make this a better world. For example, the knights are supporting work on a primary school in Uganda as part of the Order's partnership with the Apostles of Jesus outreach program to provide care and shelter for African children who are orphaned because of AIDS. Make a difference in the world! Be a Knight! To learn more about the Knights of Columbus and the many reasons for joining our Council at St. Michael's, contact Bill Brandon: wmb Brandon@gmail.com or 972-284-9356.
