Readings and Hymns for 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Processional Hymn

GOD, WE PRAISE YOU

God, we praise you! God, we bless you! God, we name you sovereign Lord!
Mighty King whom angels worship, Father, by your Church adored:
All creation shows your glory, Heaven and earth draw near your throne,
Singing "Holy, holy, holy," Lord of hosts and God alone!

True apostles, faithful prophets, Saints who set their world ablaze,
Martyrs, once unknown, unheeded, Join one growing song of praise,
While your Church on earth confesses One majestic Trinity:
Father, Son and Holy Spirit, God, our hope eternally.

1st Reading – Ezekiel 17:22-24

Thus says the Lord GOD: I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar, from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot, and plant it on a high and lofty mountain; on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it. It shall put forth branches and bear fruit, and become a majestic cedar. Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it, every winged thing in the shade of its boughs. And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom. As I, the LORD, have spoken, so will I do.

Responsorial Psalm –

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praise to your name, Most High,
To proclaim your kindness at dawn
and your faithfulness throughout the night.

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

The just one shall flourish like the palm tree,
like a cedar of Lebanon shall he grow.
They that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

They shall bear fruit even in old age;
vigorous and sturdy shall they be,
Declaring how just is the LORD,
my rock, in whom there is no wrong.

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

2nd Reading – 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

Brothers and sisters: We are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord,⁷ for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

Gospel – Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds: "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade." With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

Recessional Hymn

Now Thank We All Our God

Now thank we all our God with heart, and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, in whom his world rejoices:
Who, from our mother's arms Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.

O may this gracious God Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us;
Preserve us in his grace, And guide us in distress,
And free us from all sin, Till heaven we possess.

My Dear Parish Family,

As many of you know, during Advent we did our best to "sell out" our gift shop with the plan to close it and convert its space into a new devotional shrine area. Our plans for that endeavor are going along well and we are at the point of choosing which statues and saints will fill this new space. We have the good fortune of having the opportunity to claim and re-house some statues from closed churches. This is beneficial in two ways: 1) it allows us to decorate our shrine at a low cost; 2) It gives us the opportunity to share in the devotional patrimony of a closed parish and make sure their statues are not discarded or destroyed.

It is an exciting prospect to build a new shrine and I am interested in hearing the opinions and preferences of our parishioners. Below you will see pictures of four (4) available statues. We will be able to claim TWO of them. We have the option of one of two female saints, Saint Therese of Lisieux or Saint (Mother) Frances Cabrini, and one of two male saints, Saint Patrick or Saint Jude. All are 4 feet tall and of the same proportionate size. In the bottom corner of this page you will see a "ballot". I kindly ask you to "vote" for ONE choice of a male saint and ONE choice of female saint. We will tally the votes and let you know what our parishioners are thinking. Many thanks.

Fr. Dan

Please put a ✓ next to your ONE choice in each category:

Female Saint:

_____ St. Therese of Lisieux

_____ St. Frances Cabrini

Male Saint:

_____ St. Patrick

_____ St. Jude

Please tear off this ballot place it in the collection box.

St. Anthony is truly a universal saint, respected and venerated even by non-Christians. He is especially known as the patron saint of the lost, for all throughout his life he restored things back to people who had lost them: for some it was their health, for others their hope, for still others their virtue, and for many their faith. Today, as in the 13th century, we call out, "St. Anthony, pray for us!"

PRAYER IN HONOR OF SAINT ANTHONY

Father, you gave Saint Anthony the wisdom and grace to live and preach the Gospel of Christ. Help us to live the Gospel life as he did. Fill our hearts with your love, that we may pursue unselfishly a sincere love of God and neighbor. May we be sensitive to your call and faithful to our baptismal promises. May we imitate the life and work of Saint Anthony and create a new world where the love of Jesus will be the rule and not the exception. We make our prayer through Christ Our Lord. Amen.
