Readings and Hymns for 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Processional Hymn Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
To his feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore his praises sing:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favor
To his children in distress;
Praise him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Glorious in his faithfulness.

1st Reading – Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, "Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple." Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

Responsorial Psalm –

R. (8) Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims;
the LORD for he proclaims peace.
Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him,
glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet;
justice and peace shall kiss.
Truth shall spring out of the earth,
and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits;
our land shall yield its increase.
Justice shall walk before him,
and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

2nd Reading – Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved. In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth. [In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ. In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory.]

Gospel – Mark 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Recessional Hymn Sent Forth by God's Blessing

Sent forth by God's blessing, our true faith confessing,
The people of God from his dwelling take leave.
God's sacrifice ended, O now be extended
The suits of this Mass in all hearts who believe.

The seed of Christ's teaching, our inner souls reaching,
Shall blossom in action for God and for all.
His grace shall incite us, his love shall unite us
To further God's kingdom and answer his call.

Mass Intentions: 2022 Liturgical Year

As Catholics, our faith teaches us that the Mass is our greatest prayer. It is the prayer that joins all believers into one universal action. We are joined in faith and sacrifice with every other believer - those on earth, those in purgatory, and those in Heaven.

Because the prayer of the Mass is so powerful and central to our faith as Catholics, there has been a long-standing tradition, reaching back to the earliest days of the Church, of believers offering Masses for particular intentions. Masses can be offered for special intentions, in thanksgiving to God, for someone who is sick, for the intentions of another person, and most commonly, for the soul of someone who has died.

We invite you to take part in this beautiful and pious tradition of the Church. Our Mass intention book for 2022 will open on Monday, July 19th. Please review the guidelines and instructions below.

Guidelines for the 2022 Mass Intention Book

Our 2022 Book of Mass Intentions will be opened on Monday, July 19th at 9:30am.

Each parish family is allowed up to 7 scheduled Masses (up to 3 of these can be Saturday evening / Sundays).

Only 1 Mass per day can be prayed for any individual intention.

No Masses will be reserved in the book without a stipend of $15.00.

Please note that Church governance requires that only one intention (person) per Mass is allowed. However, for pastoral concerns to better accommodate the needs of the parishioners, we will adhere to the following: Up to three first names with the same last name (i.e. John, Paul, and Mary Smith) or two last names only (i.e. Scott and Smith Families) will be allowed per intention.

When the book officially opens, it is absolutely First Come, First Serve. We will only process requests in-person starting Monday - July 19, 2021 starting at 9:30am.

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL July 16th

This is the patronal feast of the Carmelites. The Order of Carmelites takes its name from Mount Carmel, which was the first place dedicated to the Blessed Virgin and where a chapel was erected in her honor before her Assumption into Heaven.

July 16th is also the Feast of the "Scapular of Mount Carmel". On that day in 1251, pious traditions says, the Blessed Virgin appeared to St. Simon Stock, General of the Carmelites at Cambridge, England, showed him the scapular and promised supernatural favors and her special protection to his Order and to all persons who would wear her scapular.

To obtain the indulgences and other benefits promised to those who wear the Carmelite scapular, a person must be vested by a priest who has the requisite faculties and must lead a consistent Christian life.
