Readings for the Easter Sunday

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37–43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.

Responsorial Psalm

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.

Let the house of Israel say,
"His mercy endures forever."

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

"The right hand of the LORD has struck with power;
the right hand of the LORD is exalted.

I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Second Reading: Col 3:1–4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

- Or -

Col 3:1–4

Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Gospel Reading: Jn 20:1–9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

My Dear Parish Family,

Happy Easter! These are our high holy days and we join Christians of all stripes throughout the world in welcoming the joy of the Resurrection. It is the Resurrection that give us our identity as Christians. It is the linchpin of our Christian faith and the whole understanding of our salvation history. We are an Easter People – not defined by the sadness of the cross, but by the joy of the Resurrection which conquered that cross. So, we celebrate these days of Easter with excitement and fervor!

As a Church, Easter is also the time when we welcome new members into our fold. Just in our diocese alone, hundreds of adults were baptized, received into the Church, and/or completed their sacraments. Here at St. Anthony's we welcomed Pamela into full communion and she received her sacraments at the Easter Vigil. We have much to be grateful for and welcome her with joy.

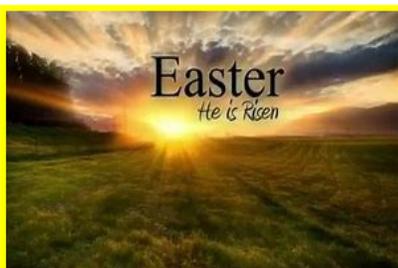

On the topic of gratefulness, I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to all those members of our parish who helped make Holy Week and Easter a beautiful experience here at St. Anthony's. Our choir and liturgical ministers for enhancing our celebrations with their talents – Our Altar Society and volunteers who decorated and cleaned and gave their time to all the work behind the scenes – All those who contributed to our Easter Flower collection. It's the love and dedication of our parishioners that makes St. Anthony's the wonderful parish we all know and love. So, thank you!

One last note of interest. As many of you may have already heard, Cardinal Dolan recently named me the Temporary Administrator of St. Matthew's Church in Hastings and Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Ardsley. Just so you know, this is a temporary situation until a new pastor is named for those parishes. I am still, and will remain, the full-time pastor of St. Anthony's and will still continue to minister here while also helping the ministry teams in Hastings and Ardsley. I just wanted to make you aware of this so you know exactly what is going on. I ask you to kindly keep me and your neighbors in Hastings and Ardsley in your prayers during their time of transition.

Happy Easter! And may the grace of the Risen Jesus bestow blessings on you and your families!

Pax,

Fr. Dan

CHRIST IS RISEN, ALLELUIA!

This day stands at the very center of the liturgical year and our Christian lives year after year. Today, the Lord Jesus breaks the chains of sin and death. As He breaks those bonds and rises from the dead, He becomes the everlasting sign of the promise of new life for us. There is cause for tremendous celebration here, which is why the Church gives us fifty days - the entire Easter Season - to savor these Mysteries. As the Sacred Word of God is proclaimed today, let us ask the Lord Jesus, Our Redeemer and Friend, to walk with us in the days ahead as we praise and thank God for the gift of salvation and the promise of everlasting life.
