Readings for Holy Trinity Sunday

1st Reading – Proverbs 8:22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God: "The LORD possessed me, the beginning of his ways, the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago; from of old, I was poured forth, at the first, before the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth when there were no fountains or springs of water; before the mountains were settled into place, before the hills, I was brought forth; while as yet the earth and fields were not made, nor the first clods of the world. "When the Lord established the heavens I was there when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep; when he made firm the skies above, when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; when he set for the sea its limit so that the waters should not transgress his command; then was I beside him as his craftsman, and I was his delight day by day, playing before him all the while, playing on the surface of his earth; and I found delight in the human race."

Responsorial Psalm –

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

2nd Reading – Romans 5:1-5

Brothers and sisters: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Gospel – John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason, I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

O Holy Saint Anthony, gentlest of Saints, your love for God and charity for His creatures, made you worthy when on earth, to possess miraculous powers. Encouraged by this thought, I implore you to obtain for me (place your request). O gentle and loving Saint Anthony, whose heart was ever full of human sympathy, whisper my petition into the ears of the Sweet Infant Jesus, who loved to be folded in your arms. The gratitude of my heart will ever be yours. Amen.

OUTREACH TO THE POOR

This weekend is
Loaves and Fishes Sunday.
Please be generous.

Mass Intentions: 2023 Liturgical Year

As Catholics, our faith teaches us that the Mass is our greatest prayer. It is the prayer that joins all believers into one universal action. We are joined in faith and sacrifice with every other believer - those on earth, those in purgatory, and those in Heaven.

Because the prayer of the Mass is so powerful and central to our faith as Catholics, there has been a long-standing tradition, reaching back to the earliest days of the Church, of believers offering Masses for particular intentions. Masses can be offered for special intentions, in thanksgiving to God, for someone who is sick, for the intentions of another person, and most commonly, for the soul of someone who has died.

We invite you to take part in this beautiful and pious tradition of the Church. Our Mass intention book for 2023 will open on Wednesday June 22nd. Please review the guidelines and instructions below.

Guidelines for the 2023 Mass Intention Book

Our 2023 Book of Mass Intentions will be opened on Wednesday, June 22nd at 9:00AM

Each parish family is allowed up to 7 scheduled Masses (up to 3 of these can be Saturday evening / Sundays).

Only 1 Mass per day can be prayed for any individual intention.

Masses will be reserved in the book with a stipend of $15.00.

Please note that Church governance requires that only one intention (person) per Mass is allowed. However, for pastoral concerns to better accommodate the needs of the parishioners, we will adhere to the following: Up to three first names with the same last name (i.e. John, Paul, and Mary Smith) or two last names only (i.e. Scott and Smith Families) will be allowed per intention.

When the book officially opens, it is absolutely First Come, First Serve. We will only process requests in-person on Wednesday June 22nd starting at 9:00AM.

OLD GLORY

Your stars shine out for liberty,
Your white stripes stand for purity,
Your crimson claims
that courage high,
For honor's sake to fight and die.
Sing of a nation great and strong,
Lead the world
toward right from wrong.
Pride and glory and honor, all
Live in the colors to stand or fall.

GOD BLESS AMERICA
