Readings for the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading – Isaiah 66:10-14c

Thus says the LORD: Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad because of her, all you who love her; exult, exult with her, all you who were mourning over her! Oh, that you may suck fully of the milk of her comfort, that you may nurse with delight at her abundant breasts! For thus says the LORD: Lo, I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent. As nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms, and fondled in her lap; as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; in Jerusalem, you shall find your comfort. When you see this, your heart shall rejoice and your bodies flourish like the grass; the LORD's power shall be known to his servants.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

2nd Reading – Galatians 6:14-18

Brothers and sisters: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither does circumcision mean anything nor does uncircumcision, but only a new creation. Peace and mercy be to all who follow this rule and to the Israel of God. From now on, let no one make troubles for me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Gospel – Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.' Whatever town you enter and they do not receive you, go out into the streets and say, 'The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off against you.' Yet know this: the kingdom of God is at hand. I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that day than for that town." The seventy-two returned rejoicing, and said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name." Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Mass Intentions: 2023 Liturgical Year

As Catholics, our faith teaches us that the Mass is our greatest prayer. It is the prayer that joins all believers into one universal action. We are joined in faith and sacrifice with every other believer - those on earth, those in purgatory, and those in Heaven. Because the prayer of the Mass is so powerful and central to our faith as Catholics, there has been a long-standing tradition, reaching back to the earliest days of the Church, of believers offering Masses for particular intentions. Masses can be offered for special intentions, in thanksgiving to God, for someone who is sick, for the intentions of another person, and most commonly, for the soul of someone who has died. We invite you to take part in this beautiful and pious tradition of the Church. Our Mass intention book for 2023 is open. Please come to the Rectory Office Monday thru Friday from 9:00am to 4:00pm. Mass stipend: $15.00.

My Dear Parish Family,

I hope your Summer time has gotten off to a fun and relaxing start. Here at St. Anthony's we kicked off our Summer with a really great time at our Parish Picnic! After two years of no picnic, it was so exciting to come together again. With over 600 attendees, I think it was a hit! We had a beautiful day filled with food, games, families, and rides. I hope those who attended enjoyed themselves and I hope those who couldn't make it this year will join us next year.

Such a big event doesn't happen on its own. A lot of time and work of a lot of people go into making the Picnic a great day. I want to thank the members of our staff, parish council members, and all our volunteers for their help with planning, registrations, early morning set up, and late evening breakdown. I want to thank the fantastic staff of Homefield Deli for keeping us so well fed throughout the entire day. I want to thank all those who provided so much entertainment with rides and music. I want to thank the Yonkers Auxiliary Police and Parks Department for keeping us safe and attended throughout the day. I want to especially thank Mr. John Larkin for his incredible dedication to all the planning and organization behind the scenes. The day couldn't happen without him.

Our Parish Picnic is one of our big yearly events with the goal of bringing us together as a parish family and building up our parish life here at St. Anthony's. I hope we succeed at that and I hope you all always feel that you have a home here.

Pax,
Fr. Dan
