Readings for the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading – Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23

Vanity of vanities, says Qoheleth, vanity of vanities! All things are vanity! Here is one who has labored with wisdom and knowledge and skill, and yet to another who has not labored over it, he must leave property. This also is vanity and a great misfortune. For what profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart with which he has labored under the sun? All his days sorrow and grief are his occupation; even at night his mind is not at rest. This also is vanity.

Responsorial Psalm –

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

2nd Reading – Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Brothers and sisters: If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory. Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the greed that is idolatry. Stop lying to one another, since you have taken off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed, for knowledge, in the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all and in all.

Gospel – Luke 12:13-21

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Then he told them a parable. "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?' And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, "Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!"' But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."

TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD....August 6th

At his Transfiguration, Christ showed his disciples the splendor of his beauty, to which he will shape and color those who are his: 'He will reform our lowliness configured to the body of his glory'" (Philippians 3:21) (St. Thomas Aquinas, Summa Theologiae).

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up a mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white.

And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem.

Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him.

As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud.

Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

My Dear Parish Family,

For many parishes, Summer tends to be a slower time. Typically, most parish groups aren't meeting, our education classes are on holiday, and many parishioners are going back and forth to vacation. While summer provides a slower time it also provides a lot of time for planning. The planning continues here at St. Anthony's.

As you read in the bulletin a few weeks ago, we're developing and unveiling a brand-new Middle School Faith Formation and Sacramental Preparation Program this coming Fall. Presently, we're in the process of planning curriculums and activities along with training our group leaders who will facilitate the program.

Our wonderful staff in St. Anthony's School are planning for another great school year full of fun activities and top-notch education.

Very excitingly we are planning to celebrate our 100th Parish Anniversary in 2023! St. Anthony's became its own independent parish in 1923 after almost a decade as a mission of Sacred Heart Monastery. A 100th Anniversary celebration is an incredible achievement and great way to honor our amazing past while looking towards the hopeful future of our parish. We are planning different events in 2023 that will help us mark this historic occasion which will include our parish picnic and an anniversary gala dinner. Our 100th Anniversary year will be kicked off by Cardinal Dolan who will join us here on January 28th, 2023 for an Anniversary Mass and Cocktail Reception. As the plans for these events become more concrete, we will announce them and hope that you will join us in celebrating the gift and grace that is St. Anthony's Parish.

The days are warm and the schedule is slow, but the planning never stops!

Happy Summer.

Pax,

Fr. Dan
