Pastor's Note...

Is there a moral obligation to receive a COVID-19 vaccination?

The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith has noted recently that "vaccination is not, as a rule, a moral obligation and that, therefore, it must be voluntary. In any case, from the ethical point of view, the morality of vaccination depends not only on the duty to protect one's own health but also on the duty to pursue the common good." vi And it said that "in the absence of other means to stop or even prevent the epidemic" vaccination may promote the common good, "especially to protect the weakest and most exposed." For a vaccine to be effective in protecting society, most people need to be vaccinated in order to break the chain of disease transmission from person to person throughout the community. The Congregation also said that those who refuse to get vaccinated must do their utmost, by taking all the necessary precautions, to avoid "becoming vehicles for the transmission of the infectious agent. In particular, they must avoid any risk to the health of those who cannot be vaccinated for medical or other reasons, and who are the most vulnerable."

¿Existe la obligación moral de recibir una vacuna COVID-19?

La Congregación para la Doctrina de la Fe ha señalado recientemente que "la vacunación no es, por regla general, una obligación y que, por lo tanto, debe ser voluntario. En cualquier caso, desde el punto de vista ético, la moralidad vacunado depende no sólo del deber de proteger su propia salud, sino también del deber de bien común." vi Y dijo que "en ausencia de otros medios para detener o incluso prevenir la epidemia" la vacunación puede promover el bien común, "especialmente para proteger a los más débiles y expuestos". Para que una vacuna sea eficaz en la protección de la sociedad, la mayoría de las personas necesitan ser vacunadas para romper la cadena de transmisión de la enfermedad de persona a persona en toda la comunidad. La Congregación también dijo que aquellos que se niegan a vacunarse deben hacer todo lo posible, tomando todas las precauciones necesarias, para evitar "convertirse en vehículos para la transmisión del agente infeccioso. En particular, deben evitar cualquier riesgo para la salud de aquellos que no pueden ser vacunados por razones médicas u otras razones, y que son los más vulnerables."

Prayer for Graduates

And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value, so that you may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

-Philippians 1:9-11

Congratulations to all Graduates!

May you be blessed with many accomplishments in the future.

Reflection:

Today as we celebrate Pentecost the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

Ladies of Charity

Thanks to all the ladies who raised money for the recent Pregnancy Resource Center (PRC) fundraiser and to all in the parish who made a contribution. We donated $1,105. I will be passing out baby bottles in May. Please collect change for PRC or write a check to help the mothers and their babies. Try to return the baby bottles by July 4. Thank you in advance.
