ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24

God will restore the kingdom of Judah, as symbolized by the cedar. The deed is emphasized by the words, "As I, the Lord have spoken, so will I do."

Second Reading: II Corinthians 5:6-10

Paul acknowledges "that we are, in a sense, away from the Lord while in this life and bound to our bodies." We will be fully united with God in the next life, if we please him in this life.

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

The reign of God is compared to a mustard seed which is the smallest of seeds yet grows to become the largest of shrubs. Similarly, God's community grows gradually until it becomes large and strong.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil."

In recent years we have heard calls for transparency and accountability. Whether in politics, the corporate world or the church, demands are being made on the activities of others. Judgments follow. The television is filled with many court room cases being exposed and decisions made – guilty, non guilty, fines and recompense. That is entertainment.

St. Paul reminds us that we all will experience the same accountability for reward or punishment. Sometimes we try to avoid finding ourselves as the subject of such scrutiny, yet it is only as a result of our goodness, our prayer life, our service to others, that the reward will come.

For many, it is quite convenient to pass over the idea of judgment. Maybe we should spend a moment to judge ourselves, ask forgiveness and reap the reward. Remember Matthew 25, 'Come blessed of my Father inherit the kingdom prepared for you....'

LECTURA BIBLICA PARA LOS PADRES

"Sirácides (Eclesiástico), 3 1. ¡Hijos, oiganme, les habla su padre! Sigán mis consejos y se salvarán. 2. Porque el Señor quiso que los hijos respetaran a su padre, estableció la autoridad de la madre sobre sus hijos. 3. El que respeta a su padre obtiene el perdón de sus pecados; 4. el que honra a su madre se prepara un tesoro. 5. Sus propios hijos serán la alegría del que respeta a su padre; el día en que le implore, el Señor lo atenderá. 6. El que respeta a su padre tendrá larga vida; el que obedece al Señor será el consuelo de su madre. 7. Servirá a los que le dieron la vida como si sirviera al Señor. 8. Actúa así, honra a tu padre de palabra y de hecho, y su bendición se hará realidad para bien tuyo. 9. Pues la bendición de un padre afirma la casa de sus hijos, pero la maldición de una madre la destruye hasta los cimientos. 10. No te alegres de la deshonra de tu padre: su vergüenza nunca será motivo de gloria para ti. 11. El honor de un hombre depende de la reputación de su padre; cuando una madre mereció el desprecio, salieron deshonrados sus hijos. 12. Hijo mío, cuida de tu padre cuando llegue a viejo; mientras viva, no le causes tristeza. 13. Si se debilita su espíritu, aguántalo; no lo desprecies porque tú te sientes en la plenitud de tus fuerzas. 14. El bien que hayas hecho a tu padre no será olvidado; se te tomará en cuenta como una reparación de tus pecados. 15. En el momento de la adversidad será un punto a tu favor, y tus pecados se derretirán como hielo al sol. 16. Abandonar a su padre es como insultar al Señor; el Señor maldice al que ha sido la desgracia de su madre"
