DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

(Readings: Acts 2:42-47 — 1st Peter 1:3-9 — John 20:19-31)

Faith — We tend to think of faith as a matter of the mind, like the knowledge or awareness of any truth. But we see in today's readings that faith is much more. The first community of believers was led by faith to share with one another everything they had. The believers to whom St. Peter wrote were willing to prove their faith through trials. And Thomas the Apostle, once overwhelmed by faith in the Risen Christ, cried out from the depth of his being: "My Lord and my God!" In the case of the Apparition of Our Lady of La Salette, the response of those who came to believe took primarily two forms. First was a return to the practice of their faith. Maximin's father, Mr. Giraud, like Thomas in the Gospel, did not come to this belief easily. But once he did become a believer, the first thing he did was to go to confession. After that, he went to Mass every day for the rest of his life. (He died nearly two and a half years later.) A second response was a deeper understanding of Mary's role in our life. It was ordinary believers, not the official Church, that gave Our Lady of La Salette her title, Reconciler of Sinners. Yes, reconciliation with God, reconciliation with the Church—Mr. Giraud is a good example—these are the natural and spontaneous effects of faith in the Beautiful Lady. And, like the faith shown in today's readings, it leads us to "rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy," "with exultation and sincerity of heart," just as "the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord." Perhaps we ourselves have experienced periods of doubt. We all know people who have little or no faith. This is distressing to anyone who understands the real difference between ordinary knowledge and faith. Knowledge has to do with content, with facts that can be useful, fascinating, even beautiful. But ultimately they don't really matter. St. Thomas Aquinas, one of the greatest theologians in history, realized one day that all he had written was just so much straw. Faith affects us in so many important ways, and provides a solid foundation for our lives. Faith matters.

Sacrificial Giving

Fostering Stewardship as a way of life for Blessed Trinity Catholic Church

Weekend of April 15th & 16th, 2017

Offertory: $25,694 EFT: $3,244.49

Debt Red: $2,812 EFT: $443.40

In today's first reading, the four activities of the earliest church are introduced to us as priorities of the church: devotion to the teachings of the apostles, communal fellowship, the Eucharist and prayer. The early members of the church saw themselves as devoted stewards of these activities. These were not options. They were the fruits of a genuine conversion to a life in Christ. Sharing in the Eucharist was the most intimate expression of fellowship, while the most common expression of fellowship in the New Testament was that of sharing financial resources – giving. It was not a perfect community, but one that gave evidence of God's active presence in its midst. This early community offers us an excellent example of how to better exercise stewardship in our own parish families.

An Easter Message from Bishop John Noonan

"Come and see the place where he lay." (Matthew 28:6)

My Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Throughout this Lenten season, we have been seeking the place where He lay. We have offered our sacrifice with His sacrifice on the Cross that God's goodness might be known throughout the land. We run to the tomb joyously to see the place where He lay and we believe.

This belief is not held as a treasure only on Easter Sunday but as a gift of life everlasting. The angel at the tomb heralds us to think of what is above, not of what is on earth.

Come and see the place where He lay. Like Mary, Peter and John, we have witnessed the fulfillment of God's promise to us through the ages in the journey to the tomb.

Alleluia, He is risen! He is risen indeed.

Reflexión....

La Fe

(Segundo Domingo de Pascua: Hechos 2,42-47; 1 Pedro 1,3-9; Juan 20:19-31)

Tendemos a pensar en la fe como un asunto mental, como un conocimiento o conciencia de cualquier verdad. Pero vemos en las lecturas de hoy que la fe es mucho más que eso.

La primera comunidad de los creyentes se sentía guiada por una fe que los llevaba a compartir con los demás todo lo que tenían. Aquellos creyentes a quienes San Pedro escribió, tenían el deseo de hacer evidente su fe por medio de las pruebas. Y Tomás el Apóstol, exaltado por la fe en Cristo Resucitado, exclamó desde lo más profundo de sus ser: "Señor mío y Dios mío"

En el caso de la Aparición de Nuestra Señora de La Salette, la repuesta de los que llegaron a creer tomó inicialmente dos formas.

La primera era un retomar la práctica de su fe. El padre de Maximino, el Sr. Giraud, como Tomás en el Evangelio, no llego a creer de manera fácil. Pero una vez que se convirtió en creyente, la primera cosa que hizo fue ir a confesarse. Después de eso, fue a misa a misa todos los días por el resto de su vida. (Murió cerca de dos años y medio después)

La segunda fue una profundización en el entendimiento del rol de María en nuestra vida. Eran los creyentes comunes, no la Iglesia oficial, los que le dieron a Nuestra Señora de La Salette su título de Reconciliadora de los pecadores.

Sí, la reconciliación con Dios, la reconciliación con la Iglesia – el Señor Giraud es un buen ejemplo de ello – estos son efectos naturales y espontáneos de fe en la Bella Señora. Y, como la fe de la que se nos habla en la lecturas de hoy, nos lleva a "Regocijarnos con una alegría gloriosa e indescriptible", "con exultación y sinceridad de corazón" justamente como "los discípulos que se regocijaron cuando vieron al Señor"

Tal vez nosotros mismos hemos experimentado periodos de duda. Todos conocemos a gente que tiene poca o nada de fe. Esto es muy entristecedor para cualquiera que entiende la diferencia real entre el saber normal y la fe.

El saber tiene que ver con el contenido, con hechos que pueden útiles, fascinantes y hasta hermosos. Pero después de todo no son realmente importantes. Santo Tomas de Aquino, uno de los más grandes teólogos, se dio cuenta un día que todo lo que había escrito era justo eso, demasiada cáscara.

La fe nos afecta de muchas importantes maneras, y nos provee un sólido fundamento para nuestras vidas. La fe es importante. (Traducido por Hno. Moisés Rueda MS, Cochabamba, Bolivia)

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 20 de abril de 1906 los ojos de una imagen de la Dolorosa comenzaron a parpadear durante un lapso de 15 minutos en el colegio jesuita San Gabriel, en Quito, Ecuador. En 1995 en Cochabamba, Bolivia, donde una imagen del Divino rostro lagrimó sangre y después, una imagen de la Inmaculada hizo lo mismo. En el transcurso del siglo veinte, muchísimas imágenes de Cristo, María e incluso, el Espíritu Santo, lloraron lágrimas de agua, sangre u óleo, emitieron aroma de rosa o mostraron alguna manifestación paranormal.

La ciencia logró explicar algunos de estos fenómenos, pero en muchos casos no fue posible. Normalmente, la jerarquía eclesiástica prefiere no hacer declaraciones oficiales al respecto, por lo menos, no antes de mucho escrutinio. El apóstol san Juan recomienda examinar cada espíritu (1 Juan 4:1-3) y esto es lo que la Iglesia hace con estas manifestaciones sobrenaturales. Con investigaciones científicas, sociales y espirituales se examinan cuidadosamente estas manifestaciones a fin de asegurar que provienen de Dios y no del diablo u otros orígenes. En fin, la mejor prueba de la veracidad de estos fenómenos es la conversión de los fieles. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

¡Un mensaje de Pascua del Obispo John Noonan!

Mensaje de Pascua de Obispo John Noonan

"Vengan y vean el lugar donde yacía" (Mateo 28:6)

Mis hermanas y hermanos en Cristo,

A lo largo de este tiempo de Cuaresma, hemos estado buscando el lugar donde yacía. Hemos ofrecido nuestro sacrificio con Su sacrificio en la cruz para que la bondad de Dios sea conocida por toda la tierra. Corremos a la tumba con alegría para ver el lugar donde El yacía y creemos.

Esta creencia no se debe sostener como un tesoro solamente en el Domingo de Pascua, sino como un regalo de vida eterna. El ángel en la tumba nos anuncia a pensar de lo que está arriba, no de lo que está en la tierra.

Vengan y vean el lugar donde yacía. Al igual que María, Pedro y Juan, hemos sido testigos del cumplimiento de la promesa de Dios a nosotros a través de las edades en la jornada hacia la tumba.

¡Aleluya, Ha resucitado! En verdad Ha resucitado.

Obispo John Noonan
