Titles—Do you have a title? La Salette Missionaries write MS after their name, and the La Salette Sisters SNDS. Some of you, our readers, surely have academic titles, or wear a name tag indicating your role and status in your place of work.

In the Bible, names often serve this purpose. Jesus tells Simon, “You will be called Cephas,” which means Peter and defines his role, his vocation. It would be interesting to speculate what name Jesus might give to each of us. One thing is certain: it would be both a blessing and an obligation.

Take the simple name of disciple, for example. It is a beautiful thing to follow Christ; but the refrain of our life then becomes that of today’s Psalm: “Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.”

This is the submission that the Beautiful Lady calls us to at the very beginning of her discourse.

Sometimes we fail to hear the call or, like Samuel, to understand where it is coming from. It may need to be repeated several times. Another person, like Eli, can help us understand what is happening.

If we accept one or both of the titles given us by Our Lady of La Salette—“my children, my people”—we may reasonably be expected to honor her by living accordingly and carrying out the great mission she has given us.

St. Paul proposes two less obvious names for believers: “temple of the Holy Spirit,” and “purchased at a price.” He draws the connection to the moral code that distinguished the Christians from the rest of Corinthian society.

Once we have recognized and accepted our vocation, it reveals itself constantly. Andrew said to Simon, “We have found the Messiah!” The truth of that statement resonated in their hearts and minds for the rest of their days.

For us, this is especially true of the Eucharist. In the Liturgy of the word we say in our hearts, “Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.” At the altar we remember the great price Jesus paid to save us. Where else can we be more conscious of being built into the temple of the Holy Spirit? There we draw the strength we need to live our Christian name and title.

REFLEXIONTítulos*Segundo Domingo Ordinario: 1 Samuel 3:3-19; 1 Corintios 6:13-20; Juan 1:35-42

¿Tienes un título? Los Misioneros de La Salette escriben MS después de sus nombres, y las hermanas de la Salette SNDS. Algunos de ustedes, nuestros lectores, seguramente poseen títulos académicos, o llevan una etiqueta que indica el rol o el status en su lugar de trabajo.

En la Biblia, los nombres a menudo están en función de un propósito. Jesús le dice a Simón, “Tú te llamarás Cefas”, que significa Pedro y define su rol, su vocación. Sería interesante especular sobre el nombre que Jesús pudiera darnos a cada uno. Una cosa es cierta: sería al mismo tiempo una bendición y una obligación.

Tomando simplemente el nombre de discípulo, por ejemplo. Es cosa bella seguir a Cristo; pero el refrán de nuestra vida entonces se convierte en el del Salmo de hoy: “Aquí estoy, Señor, para hacer tu voluntad”.

Esta es la sumisión a la que la Bella Señora nos llama al comienzo mismo de su discurso.

A veces no escuchamos el llamado o, como Samuel, no captamos su procedencia. Puede que necesitemos escucharlo muchas veces. Otra persona, como Elí, puede ayudarnos a entender lo que está pasando.

Si aceptamos uno de los títulos o ambos de los que fueron dados por Nuestra Señora de La Salette—“hijos míos, mi pueblo”—con buena razón sería de esperar de nuestra parte honrarla viviendo en consecuencia y llevando adelante la gran misión que ella nos ha confiado.

San Pablo propone dos nombres menos obvios para los creyentes: “templo del Espíritu Santo”, y “comprados, ¡y a qué precio!”. Así él establece la conexión con el código moral que distingue a los cristianos del resto de la sociedad de Corinto.

Una vez que hayamos reconocido y aceptado nuestra vocación, esta se revela a sí misma constantemente. Andrés dijo a Simón, “¡Hemos encontrado al Mesías!”. La verdad de aquella afirmación resonó en sus corazones y mentes por el resto de sus días.

Para nosotros, esto es especialmente verdadero en cuanto a la Eucaristía. En la Liturgia de la palabra decimos en nuestros corazones, “Habla, Señor, porque tu servidor escucha”. En el altar hacemos memoria del gran precio pagado por Jesús para salvarnos. ¿Dónde más podemos ser más conscientes de ser contruidos como templo del Espíritu Santo? De allí sacamos la fortaleza que necesitamos para vivir nuestro nombre cristiano con título y todo.

Traducción: Hno. Moisés Rueda, M.S.

FIESTA DE LA FEDel cumplimiento a la espiritualidad

La Eucaristía dominical ha de ser más que un mero cumplimiento de uno de los mandamientos de la santa madre Iglesia. La participación plena, consciente y activa en la celebración litúrgica supone ser un punto no negociable en la vida de los cristianos. No es del mero cumplimiento del precepto donde obtenemos lo necesario para continuar nuestra vida (aunque puede darse), es más bien, de asumir en nuestra vida lo que implica celebrar la Eucaristía. Es, creo yo, hacernos eco de la voz de los mártires del Norte de África que, ante la posibilidad del martirio y la experiencia de la tortura a causa de su fe, fueron capaces de afirmar: “No podemos ser cristianos sin la Eucaristía”. Resulta obvio que la celebración es parte de esta cláusula, pero más allá está el atar la vida a ese misterio que se celebra; el transformar nuestra vida por la palabra proclamada, vivir con la frescura de tratarnos como hermanos y hermanas, hacernos pan para que todos coman; trabajar por la justicia como una posibilidad que puede comenzar ahora mismo y que como resultado tendrá la misericordia y la compasión hacia los demás. Si en realidad celebramos la plenitud del sacramento, domingo a domingo, no podremos ser cristianos sin la Eucaristía, sin convertirnos en lo que celebramos. —Miguel Arias, Copyright © J. S.
