With Deepest Gratitude to Marian Gallagher and Bob Clunan

The beauty of our church—throughout the years and especially during the sacred seasons—has been profoundly enriched by the artistry, care, and dedication of Marian Gallagher and Bob Clunan, our Co-Directors of the Arts and Environment Ministry. From floral arrangements to liturgical decorations, their creative touch has lifted our hearts and deepened our worship. As they now prepare to “pass the baton” to future servant-ministers, we pause to recognize and thank them for the countless hours, thoughtful designs, and quiet devotion they have so generously shared with our parish community.

Marian and Bob, your work has been a blessing. You leave behind not only beauty but a legacy of faith and service. Our prayers and heartfelt appreciation go with you. Fr. Skip - Pastor

Blessings and Gratitude to Father Joe and Welcome Father Nico

The Missionaries of La Salette, Office of the Provincial Superior, recently made the announcement of the promotion and the new assignment of Fr. Joe Everton, MS, our Parochial Vicar, as the newly appointed Pastor of Our Lady of the Cape Catholic Parish, in Brewster, Massachusetts (Cape Cod), Diocese of Fall River. This transition will become effective September 1, 2025. We express our gratitude, support, and congratulations to Father Joe for all his religious and priestly ministry, dedication, and exceptional servant-discipleship he has so generously offered to our Catholic community, youth ministry, vocational discernment, of Blessed Trinity Catholic Parish. We ask you to join us for a weekend of Reception Gratitude and Blessings after all the Masses on August 9th & 10th in Transfiguration Hall.

In the same announcement, the Provincial Superior, subject to the approval of Bishop John Noonan appoints, Father Nicodemus Aung Than Aye, MS as the new Parochial Vicar to Blessed Trinity Parish, effective August 20, 2025. “Father Nico” is a member of the La Salette Missionaries from Myanmar (formerly known as Burma), and ordained on May 04, 2004. He has faithfully served in several ministries here in the US, most recently as the Parochial Vicar in St. Ann Catholic Parish, Marietta, GA (Archdiocese of Atlanta). He is an accomplished composer and enjoys music and song, as well as ministry with Teens, Spiritual Direction and Pastoral Counseling. He is one of six children and his First Profession of Vows as a La Salette Missionary was on May 1, 2000. We will schedule a Welcome Reception for Father Nico to our Catholic community in later August.

Let us keep these fine brother-priests and La Salette Missionaries in our prayers and with grateful hearts for these new transitions and their service to the Church.

In Christ's peace,

An Invitation to Build Community, Friendship & Fellowship at Blessed Trinity

Our parish family at Blessed Trinity Catholic Church continues to grow—with new faces, faithful families, and hopeful hearts joining us every week. Just take a look around at any of our weekend or daily Masses: the joyful voices of children in our “Little Flock” Sunday Children’s Church, the steady stream of visitors, and the many searching souls who find in Blessed Trinity a warm and welcoming home.

As we look to the future, we invite you to help build up the spirit of our community—what we lovingly call F²: Friendship and Fellowship.

Please join us for an evening of conversation, connection, and community on Wednesday, August 7th at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Center. Come ready to share your ideas, your heart, and your hopes for our parish. We’ll welcome the Holy Spirit, enjoy some wine and cheese, and celebrate the beautiful gift of friendship and fellowship at Blessed Trinity—together.

Let’s grow stronger as neighbors, Catholics, and friends. We look forward to seeing you!
And they all proclaimed, “Amen.”

Why do we need Vocation Ministry?

Vocations are integral to the life of the Church. The vocation of marriage produces religious vocations, and religious vocations are the human means for the entry point of all Catholics into a grace-filled sacramental life. Fostering strong and courageous vocations in the modern world is the lifeblood of the future of the Church. Yet, currently 3,500 parishes in the United States are without a resident priest, in addition to the more than 1,700 parishes without a priest in Canada. Currently, many dioceses, particularly in the north and northeast, are anticipating 50 percent of their priests to reach retirement age by NEXT YEAR. Simultaneously, the ranks of religious sisters have dwindled to levels last seen a century ago, and sacramental marriages, the foundation of all vocations, have plummeted by 55 percent since 1990. The crisis in North American vocations is unmistakably clear.

Though this reality is sobering, the zeal to cultivate all vocations is surging! Vocation directors, parish leaders, and dedicated parishioners nationwide are fervently striving to strengthen the bonds of marriage and family life and celebrate the beauty and nobility of vocations.

Our goal, the goal of Vocation Ministry, is to create an environment in every parish, school, and family that encourages and allows men and women to easily say “YES” to God’s call in their lives to the priesthood, consecrated life, or sacramental marriage. Everyone discerning this important decision should feel supported, whenever they hear the call and wherever they hear the call!

What does Vocation Ministry do?:

1. ASSESS current vocation promotion
2. STRATEGIZE new efforts to engage promoters
3. PLAN priests, laity, and educator workshops
4. CAPITALIZE on momentum of the workshops

Renewing the Catholic Church and culture hinges on actively and intentionally promoting and building up vocations. Each person’s vocational calling is imprinted on their heart by God. By partnering with Vocation Ministry, together we can rekindle that call within every heart and ensure the future of the Catholic Church.

¿Por qué necesitamos el Ministerio Vocacional?

Las vocaciones son parte integral de la vida de la Iglesia. La vocación al matrimonio produce vocaciones religiosas, y estas son el medio humano para que todos los católicos accedan a una vida sacramental plena de gracia. Fomentar vocaciones fuertes y valientes en el mundo moderno es fundamental para el futuro de la Iglesia. Sin embargo, actualmente 3,500 parroquias en Estados Unidos carecen de sacerdote residente, además de las 1,700 parroquias sin sacerdote en Canadá. Actualmente, muchas diócesis, especialmente en el norte y noreste, anticipan que el 50% de sus sacerdotes alcanzarán la edad de jubilación para el próximo año. Simultáneamente, el número de hermanas religiosas ha disminuido a niveles que no se veían hace un siglo, y los matrimonios sacramentales, fundamento de todas las vocaciones, se han desplomado un 55% desde 1990. La crisis de vocaciones en Norteamérica es inconfundiblemente clara.

Aunque esta realidad es preocupante, ¡el fervor por cultivar todas las vocaciones está aumentando! Directores de vocaciones, líderes parroquiales y feligreses dedicados de todo el país se esfuerzan fervientemente por fortalecer los lazos del matrimonio y la vida familiar, y celebrar la belleza y la nobleza de las vocaciones.

Nuestro objetivo, el objetivo del Ministerio de Vocaciones, es crear un ambiente en cada parroquia, escuela y familia que anime y permita a hombres y mujeres decir “SÍ” fácilmente al llamado de Dios en sus vidas: al sacerdocio, la vida consagrada o el matrimonio sacramental. Todos los que disciernen esta importante decisión deben sentirse apoyados, dondequiera que sientan el llamado.

¿Qué hace el Ministerio de Vocaciones?:

1. EVALUAR la promoción vocacional actual
2. ESTRATEGIAR nuevos esfuerzos para involucrar a los promotores
3. PLANIFICAR talleres para sacerdotes, laicos y educadores
4. APROVECHAR el ímpetu de los talleres

Renovar la Iglesia y la cultura católicas depende de la promoción y el desarrollo vocacional activo e intencional. Dios imprime en el corazón de cada persona su llamado vocacional. Al colaborar con el Ministerio de Vocaciones, juntos podemos reavivar ese llamado en cada corazón y asegurar el futuro de la Iglesia Católica.
