“You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world.” (Matthew 5:13–14)
Looking back to July of 2024, I am deeply aware of the remarkable graces and ongoing transformation unfolding within Blessed Trinity Catholic Parish. My heart is filled with gratitude—and renewed energy—as I recognize the many signs of the Holy Spirit alive and at work among us. In the faith, generosity, and love of our parish families, households, and visitors, I see a community truly becoming salt and light for one another and for the wider world.

In this weekend’s Gospel, Jesus reminds us that salt is meant to give flavor and preserve what is good, and light is meant to shine—not be hidden. These words beautifully describe what I have witnessed here at Blessed Trinity: a parish rediscovering its purpose, renewing its mission, and embracing stewardship not as an obligation, but as a joyful response to God’s abundant blessings.

Stewardship: Living “The Master’s Plan”

At Blessed Trinity, stewardship is a way of life rooted in gratitude. It is how we intentionally offer our time, talents, and treasure back to God, trusting that everything we have is a gift. Stewardship invites us to live our faith visibly—adding flavor to our community and shining Christ’s light through our service and generosity.

Continuing Our Stewardship Journey

Stewardship is not a one-time decision; it is a lifelong journey of discipleship. Here are just a few ways each of us can continue to live out this call:

- Share Your Time and Talents

Our parish is blessed with 30–40 ministries and organizations, each offering opportunities to serve according to your gifts and availability. For some, this may be through our weekend liturgies—such as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Greeters and Ushers, Readers, Music Ministers, or those who help with Liturgical Design and Environment. For others, weekday ministries such as Faith Formation or the Ministry of Care—bringing the Eucharist to the homebound, infirm, or hospitalized—may be a meaningful way to serve. Every role matters. Every gift counts.

- Participate in Parish Life

Our parish family grows stronger when we gather. By participating in parish events, social opportunities, faith formation programs, and communal activities, we build relationships, deepen our faith, and strengthen the bonds that make Blessed Trinity a welcoming spiritual home.

- Embrace Sacrificial Giving

Financial stewardship sustains our mission and our future. Through sacrificial giving, we express our trust in God’s providence and our commitment to the life of the parish. We continue to work toward renewing and renovating our church interior, improving church security, and addressing major maintenance and capital needs. As we prepare to enter a new season of the Diocese’s Our Catholic Appeal (OCA), your participation—especially in this historic year of generous response—can make a real difference and allow significant support to return directly to our parish.

Grateful Hearts, Generous Lives

Gratitude is the foundation of stewardship. When we recognize how richly God has blessed us, generosity naturally follows. A grateful heart becomes a giving heart—one that seeks to glorify God and lift up others. “The Master’s Plan” reminds us that stewardship is a continuous, prayerful commitment. As we walk this path together, we become true co-workers in Christ’s mission—seasoning the world with hope and illuminating it with faith, love, and service.

Together, let us continue to be the salt and the light at Blessed Trinity Catholic Parish—grateful for where we have been, hopeful for where God is leading us, and committed to living our faith boldly for all to see.

May the Lord continue to bless our parish family with grateful hearts, generous spirits, and the courage to live as the salt of the earth and the light of the world. Be assured of my prayers and my deep gratitude for each of you.

In the promise of Christ,
Fr. Skip -- Pastor

A candle loses nothing by lighting another candle. (James Keller)

“Ustedes son la sal de la tierra... Ustedes son la luz del mundo.” (Mateo 5, 13–14)

Al mirar hacia julio de 2024, soy profundamente consciente de las gracias extraordinarias y de la transformación continua que se está desarrollando en la Parroquia Católica Blessed Trinity. Mi corazón se llena de gratitud —y de renovada energía— al reconocer las muchas señales del Espíritu Santo vivo y actuando entre nosotros. En la fe, la generosidad y el amor de nuestras familias parroquiales, hogares y visitantes, veo una comunidad que verdaderamente se está convirtiendo en sal y luz los unos para los otros y para el mundo entero.

En el Evangelio de este fin de semana, Jesús nos recuerda que la sal está destinada a dar sabor y a conservar lo que es bueno, y que la luz está destinada a brillar, no a esconderse. Estas palabras describen bellamente lo que he sido testigo aquí en Blessed Trinity: una parroquia que redescubre su propósito, renueva su misión y abraza la corresponsabilidad no como una obligación, sino como una respuesta gozosa a las abundantes bendiciones de Dios.

Corresponsabilidad: Vivir “El Plan del Maestro”

En Blessed Trinity, la corresponsabilidad es un estilo de vida arraigado en la gratitud. Es la manera en que ofrecemos intencionalmente nuestro tiempo, talentos y tesoro a Dios, confiando en que todo lo que tenemos es un don. La corresponsabilidad nos invita a vivir nuestra fe de manera visible: dando sabor a nuestra comunidad y haciendo brillar la luz de Cristo a través de nuestro servicio y generosidad.

Continuar Nuestro Camino de Corresponsabilidad

La corresponsabilidad no es una decisión de una sola vez; es un camino de discipulado para toda la vida. Estas son solo algunas maneras en que cada uno de nosotros puede seguir viviendo este llamado:

• Compartir su Tiempo y Talentos

Nuestra parroquia está bendecida con 30 a 40 ministerios y organizaciones, cada uno ofreciendo oportunidades para servir de acuerdo con sus dones y disponibilidad. Para algunos, esto puede ser a través de nuestras liturgias de fin de semana, como Ministros Extraordinarios de la Sagrada Comunión, ujieres, lectores, ministros de música o quienes ayudan con el diseño litúrgico y el ambiente. Para otros, los ministerios entre semana, como la Formación en la Fe o el Ministerio de Cuidado —llevando la Eucaristía a los enfermos, confinados en casa o hospitalizados— pueden ser una manera significativa de servir. Cada función importa. Cada don cuenta.

• Participar en la Vida Parroquial

Nuestra familia parroquial se fortalece cuando nos reunimos. Al participar en eventos parroquiales, oportunidades sociales, programas de formación en la fe y actividades comunitarias, construimos relaciones, profundizamos nuestra fe y fortalecemos los lazos que hacen de Blessed Trinity un hogar espiritual acogedor.

• Abrazar la Ofrenda Sacrificial

La corresponsabilidad financiera sostiene nuestra misión y nuestro futuro. A través de la ofrenda sacrificial, expresamos nuestra confianza en la providencia de Dios y nuestro compromiso con la vida de la parroquia. Continuamos trabajando para renovar y remodelar el interior de nuestra iglesia, mejorar la seguridad del templo y atender importantes necesidades de mantenimiento y proyectos de capital. Mientras nos preparamos para entrar en una nueva etapa de la Campaña Diocesana Nuestro Llamado Católico (OCA), su participación —especialmente en este año histórico de respuesta generosa— puede marcar una verdadera diferencia y permitir que un apoyo significativo regrese directamente a nuestra parroquia.

Corazones Agradecidos, Vidas Generosas

La gratitud es el fundamento de la corresponsabilidad. Cuando reconocemos cuán abundantemente Dios nos ha bendecido, la generosidad surge de manera natural. Un corazón agradecido se convierte en un corazón generoso, que busca glorificar a Dios y elevar a los demás. El Plan del Maestro nos recuerda que la corresponsabilidad es un compromiso continuo y orante. Al recorrer este camino juntos, nos convertimos en verdaderos colaboradores en la misión de Cristo: dando sabor al mundo con esperanza e iluminándolo con fe, amor y servicio.

Juntos, continuemos siendo la sal y la luz en la Parroquia Católica Blessed Trinity: agradecidos por el camino recorrido, esperanzados por hacia dónde Dios nos conduce y comprometidos a vivir nuestra fe con valentía para que todos la vean.

Que el Señor continúe bendiciendo a nuestra familia parroquial con corazones agradecidos, espíritus generosos y el valor de vivir como la sal de la tierra y la luz del mundo. Tengan la seguridad de mis oraciones y de mi profunda gratitud por cada uno de ustedes.

En la promesa de Cristo,
Padre Skip — Párroco
