Pastors and Parochial Vicars

Fr. Roland Nadeau, M.S.

Dear Parishioners, Pastor

Fr. Brian Schloth, M.S.

Parochial Vicar

We are pleased to present our 40th Anniversary Blessed Trinity Parish Directory!

The Fall of 2006 marks our first year in our new church and a new beginning for our parish. Along with my arrival as Pastor and Fr. Brian Schloth MS, joining us as Associate, our community has begun a process that will establish a new parish identity and mission. Our Parish Council is working with all the members of our parish to move forward in formulating and ratifying an updated parish Mission Statement that will lead to a more vital and powerful parish community.

In my first month I have seen and appreciated the warmth and hospitality of the people of Blessed Trinity. The energy and enthusiasm shown at the Parish Assembly, the industriousness and commitment of our new Pastoral Council, and the efforts to review and improve our functioning as a parish body will achieve a new beginning and a hopeful future for our parish.

As you look through the pages of this Directory you will see the beautiful faces of the men, women and children of Blessed Trinity and share my optimism.

Together we WILL make it happen!

Early History of Blessed Trinity Church

In June, 1962, Archbishop Joseph R. Hurley granted Father Patrick J. O'Carroll permission to celebrate Mass in the auditorium of the Conway Elementary School. At that time, this area was part of the St. John Vianney Parish and this service was called the Lake Conway Mission. In March, 1963 a separate bank account was established for the Mission and plans were first discussed for the erection of a Church. Early in 1965, Fr. Miguel Garcia recommended the location for the new Church and proposed new Parish boundary lines. In December, 1965, the Archbishop advised Fr. Garcia that the name "Blessed Trinity" had been chosen for the future parish.

Fr. Terrell F. Solana, the first pastor of Blessed Trinity Parish, moved into the rectory at 4514 Blonigen Ave. early in 1966, and on Septuagesima Sunday he celebrated the first Mass of the new parish in the Conway Elementary School.

Fr. John Caulfield became Blessed Trinity's second pastor in August 1966, and broke ground for the new (now our "old") church building at Noon on Trinity Sunday of 1967. Fr. Caulfield celebrated the first Mass in the unfinished Church at Midnight on Christmas Eve, 1967.

On May 12, 1968, Bishop Paul F. Tanner of St. Augustine officially dedicated the Blessed Trinity Catholic Church.

The third Pastor of Blessed Trinity was Father Thomas J. Bergin who served from March 1972, until December 1973.

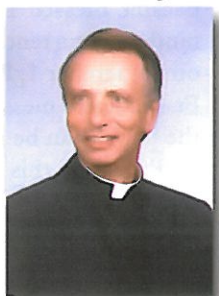

Fr. Antonio Pons was appointed Blessed Trinity's fourth Pastor in January, 1974, and continued to serve as Pastor for twelve years until December, 1986. During his tenure the church building was remodeled, with the entrance moved from the Anderson Rd. side to its present location, and the current Parish Center and Rectory was built on the Blessed Trinity campus. Also, the "White House," Blessed Trinity's administrative building, was moved intact onto the campus from its original site at Curry Ford and Conway Roads.

After Fr. Pons left the Parish, for an interval of six months, Fr. Bob Hoffner served as parish administrator.

Fr. Lyle Danen was appointed Blessed Trinity's fifth Pastor in May, 1987.

In August, 1987, a new Spanish Language Mass was first celebrated by Fr. Eduardo Benitez. Fr. Hernan Afanador replaced Fr. Benitez in 1989.

Blessed Trinity's sixth Pastor was Fr. Hector La-Chapelle, who was appointed in June of 1991.

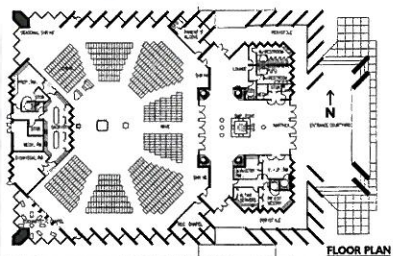

Fr. La Chapelle was the first Blessed Trinity Pastor who was a member of the La Salette Order.

More of Our Church History

Fr. Jim Henault became Blessed Trinity's seventh Pastor in December, 1993.

During Fr. Henault's tenure, the first plans were made to build the new church. The entire parish was involved throughout the planning stages.

Fr. Ron

On Trinity Sunday, August, 1998, Fr. Ron Gagne and Fr. Joe Aquino became Co-Pastors of Blessed Trinity Parish. Fr. Joe served until June, 2005, after which Fr. Ron remained as sole Pastor.

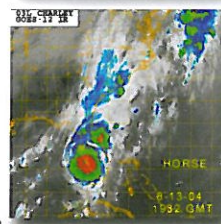

Fr. Joe

The new church cornerstone was blessed in a ceremony on June 10, 2001.

After many zoning complications, groundbreaking for the new church took place on March 23, 2003, during a torrential downpour.

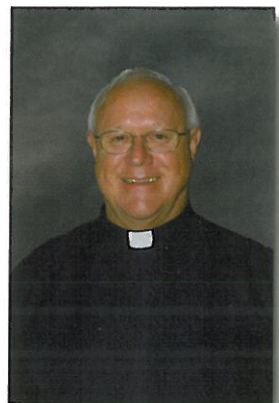

In August and September of 2004, the Parish was hit by three hurricanes, Charley, Frances and Jeanne, over the course of five weeks. The first, Charley, was devastating; the entire Parish was without power for two weeks and most of the lovely live oaks on the campus were toppled.

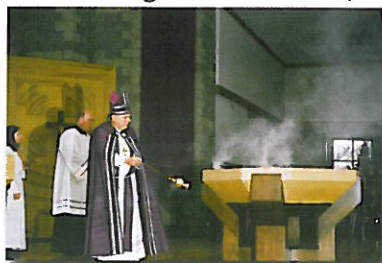

In June, 2005, some vandals broke into the unfinished church building and set fire to the brand new Rodgers organ that had just been installed the afternoon before, and to the cloth that covered the altar. The fire, smoke and water from the sprinkler system did significant damage to the entire church building, which delayed the dedication of our new church for several months.

Work was completed despite all of these tribulations, and Bishop Thomas Wenski formally dedicated our beautiful new church building on December 17, 2005.

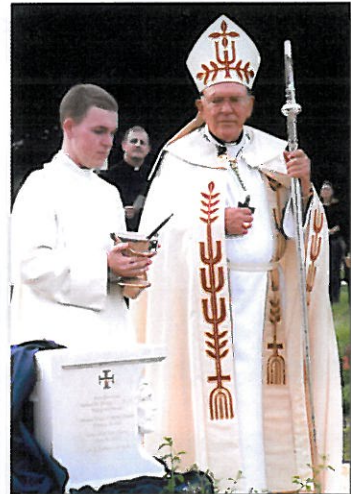

Fr. Roland Nadeau, M.S. became Blessed Trinity's ninth and current Pastor on September 1, 2006. Fr. Nadeau's message to the parish can be read on Page 1 of this directory.
