SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

They called the church together and reported what God had done with them. (Acts 14:27)

PSALM:

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God. (Ps 146)
Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING:

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes,
and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain,
for the old order has passed away." (Rev 21:4)

GOSPEL:

I give you a new commandment: love one another.
As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.
(Jn 13:34)

Saint of the Week

Though St. Margaret of Cortona (1247 – 1297) is today known as being an incredibly pious Catholic, she didn't start out that way. Born into a farming family in Laviano, Tuscany, her mother died when St. Margaret was seven. Her father remarried, but life with her stepmother was so difficult that St. Margaret moved out of the home and instead chose to live with a man named Arsenio, though they weren't married. They had been living together for nine years when she gave birth to a son. Knowing in her heart that this wasn't the life that God intended for her to have, she prayed for purity.

One day while waiting for Arsenio, his dog led her into the forest where she found Arsenio murdered. So shocked was St. Margaret that she fell into a life of penance. She and her son returned to Laviano, but still found her stepmother to be as unwelcoming as ever. They then went to Cortona, and eventually her son became a friar.

Three years after her conversion, St. Margaret followed in her son's footsteps and became a Franciscan tertiary. During her life, St. Margaret established a hospital and founded a congregation of tertiary sisters. She was canonized in 1728.

Last Call for high school students...Join our summer trek to Tijuana with Esperanza International July 24 - 30. Enrich your summer vacation by growing your heart and mind working side by side with community members building dignified, sustainable housing. Your involvement could be the spark of hope to change a life, not just your own! There are many needs in our world including our own neighborhood and it is important that we all step up as people of compassion in one way or another. If you're looking for that opportunity, Esperanza International has been successful in community development for over 30 years and needs our participation more than ever. Check out www.esperanzaint.org to learn more then email St. C parishioner Katie Fleming for trip details kjfleming1239@gmail.com

On Sunday May 22 at 9:30 am at St. Benedict Church we are having a presentation on Climate and Catholic Social Teaching by Jeff Renner, retired TV5 King metrologist and scientific journalist. Jeff is a member of Mary Queen of Peace Parish, Sammamish and the parish Climate Care Committee. He has offered his expertise at talks in numbers of Archdiocesan parishes and community groups. This is for both St. Benedict and St. Catherine parishes. Coffee hour will be available after the 8 am mass. (We can discuss further details at St. Benedict Human Concerns meeting on May 19). Your support and involvement will be greatly appreciated. Thanks, Val Keller.
