PARISH FAMILY UPDATES

MEET OUR PASTORAL LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

We are happy to introduce the members of our newly formed Pastoral Leadership Council:

From St. Alphonsus:

- Michael Corcoro
- Mary Pat O’Leary
- Olivia Raese

From St. Benedict:

- Brian Beach
- Nausica Zorzi
- Philip Orquia

From St. John:

- Joe Sullivan
- Olga Sala Torra
- Teresa Lombardi

They held their first 2 meetings on May 7 and 12, marking the beginning of their work together in service to our parish community.

Please stay tuned for the minutes of the meeting, as well as more information about each member and the upcoming council gatherings in the weeks ahead!

YOU!

Have a question or suggestion for our Parish Family?

Your voice matters, and we’re committed to listening. Please visit <https://bit.ly/PF14Queries> or scan the QR code.

Each week, we’ll feature a Question of the Week and provide thoughtful answers or updates. Send yours in, you just might see it spotlighted!

GETTING TO KNOW YOUR PARISH FAMILY

Each week, we’ll share a little more about our Parish Family — our beautiful churches, welcoming facilities, dedicated staff, and some fun and inspiring facts along the way.

Through this, we hope you’ll feel a deeper sense of connection, belonging, and joy in being part of our warm and faith-filled community.

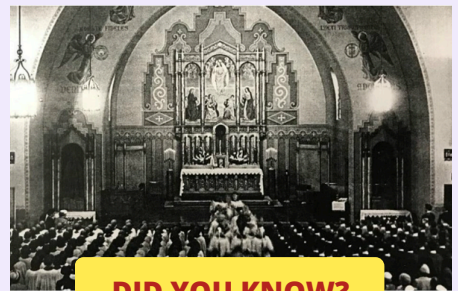

DID YOU KNOW?

St. Alphonsus Church in Seattle is big enough to fit 800 people! It’s also a beautiful place to pray, with high ceilings, intricate stained glass windows, and a peaceful, welcoming feel. It’s truly a treasure in our Parish Family!

DID YOU KNOW?

The stunning Rose Window at St. Benedict Church is full of meaning and history. It honors the Oblates of Mary Immaculate, who once served the parish, and beautifully symbolizes the unending life of a Catholic community. Next time you visit St. Benedict, take a moment to look up and enjoy this inspiring work of art.

DID YOU KNOW?

When St. John Church was first built in 1931, its sanctuary looked just like this photo. Designed by architect Abraham Albertson, the church is a beautiful example of Romanesque style. Though it’s been renovated over the years, much of its original charm has been carefully preserved.

FAITH IN FOCUS

Glory to You, O Lord

WHEN THE priest or deacon announces the Gospel at Mass, the people respond, “Glory to you, O Lord.” The response marks the tiniest change introduced in the revised English translation of the Mass. It inserts the word “O.”

This brief dialogue serves two purposes—one practical, the other spiritual. The announcement tells the community which of the four Gospels provides today’s excerpt. Spiritually, though, the people respond by glorifying the Lord. Their words acclaim Jesus Christ the Lord, who is about to speak to them through his word. The proclamation of the Gospel is a sacramental moment. Christ is present to his people. He is speaking to them. This is not a mere reading of an old book; it is a living proclamation of Christ’s word to his people today.

The word “O” appears in this acclamation. Some people were saying it all along. Others make a slight adjustment. Throughout the revised translation of the Missal, the word “O” has been inserted into prayers addressing “Lord” or “God” to soften the way we speak, to sound more humble, and to show respect for the one we are addressing. This happens most often in the prayers of the priest, but occasionally in the texts assigned to the people. When you respond, “Glory to you, O Lord,” you are greeting Jesus Christ who is about to speak to you, and you show him respect with your word and your heart.

SAINT OF THE MONTH

Blessed Imelda Lambertini (1322-1333)

Feast Day: May 13

Beatified: December 20, 1826

Patron Saint of First Communicants

Imelda Lambertini was born in 1322 in Bologna, the only child of Count Egano

Lambertini and Castora Galuzzi. Her parents were devout Catholics and were known for their charity and generosity to the underprivileged of Bologna. On her fifth birthday, she requested to receive the Eucharist; however, the custom at the time was that children did not receive their First Communion until age 14.

At age nine, she went to live with the Dominican nuns at Val di Pietra, near Bologna.

On 12 May 1333, the day of the vigil of the Ascension, she knelt and the “Light of the Host” was reportedly witnessed above her head by the Sacristan, who then fetched the priest so he could see. After seeing this miracle, the priest felt compelled to admit her to receiving the Eucharist. Immediately after receiving it, Imelda went back to her seat, and decided to stay after Mass and pray. Later when a nun came to get her for supper, she found her still kneeling with a smile on her face. The nun called her name, but she did not stir, so she lightly tapped Imelda on the shoulder, at which time Imelda collapsed to the floor, dead. Her remains are kept in Bologna at the Church of San Sigismondo, beneath the wax effigy of her likeness. The cultus of Lambertini has grown so popular that a confraternity for First Communicants has been established in her honor and the last Eucharistic Congress held in Bergamo passed a petition for her canonization.

Lambertini’s spiritual writings were approved by theologians on 8 June 1891, 13 March 1894, and 19 March 1895. Her cause was formally opened on 11 December 1897, granting her the title of Servant of God.

Lambertini was beatified by Pope Leo XII in 1826.

OUR LADY OF ANTIPOLLO

Filipino Memorial Mass + Pilgrimage

Celebrant: Fr. Ramon Santa Cruz

Filipino Memorial Mass and Pilgrimage for Our Lady of Antipolo at Holyrood Catholic Cemetery with lunch to follow.

Our Lady of Antipolo is a 17th-century Roman Catholic wooden image of the Blessed Virgin Mary venerated in the Philippines. The image was brought to the country by Governor-General Juan Niño de Tabora from Mexico via the galleon El Almirante in 1626. His safe voyage across the Pacific Ocean was attributed to the image, which was given the title of "Our Lady of Peace and Good Voyage". The statue is one of the most celebrated images of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the Philippines.
