BETTER COMMUNICATION, STRONGER CONNECTION

In the coming months, we'll be working on improving how we communicate with you. Here's what's ahead:

One e-newsletter – We'll combine the newsletters of our three parishes into one, using a single platform. This means you'll receive all important news, events, and updates in one easy-to-read format.

One website – We'll bring together our three parish websites into a single, easy-to-navigate site. This will make it simpler to find Mass schedules, parish events, ministry information, and other resources, all in one place.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY, AUGUST 24 - Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Outcasts will be gathered home by God as a precious offering in glory.

Isaiah 66:18-21

God reveals to Isaiah that people from far and wide will be welcomed to the holy city, Jerusalem. The psalmist also invites people of every nation to glorify God. Centuries later, Jesus affirms that people from every point of the compass will be welcomed into the kingdom of God. That having been said, getting in is not easy and some will be sent away. May we embrace God's discipline, in the spirit in which it is explained in the second reading today, recognizing that it is offered out of God's great love for us.

Psalm

"Go out to all the world and tell the Good News."

Psalm 117

Second Reading

Discipline strengthens what is weak.

Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

Gospel

The doorway into the kingdom is narrow.

Luke 13:22-30

FAITH IN FOCUS

Bringing Up the Gifts

AT THE beginning of the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the bread, wine, and offerings for the Church and the poor are brought to the altar. Sometimes the bread and wine are placed on the credence table before Mass. In this case, a minister brings them to the altar at the Preparation of the Gifts. More commonly, the bread and wine are placed near the door of the church before Mass. They may be brought up in procession to the altar.

The procession should include just these primary symbols. It is permissible to carry up the water in the procession, but ideally, it is already in place before Mass together with the bowl, towel, and chalice. The Procession of the Gifts is not a setting of the credence table. It begins the preparation of the offerings for Mass.

Similarly, symbolic tokens that will be retrieved and put back into use after Mass should not be brought up in procession. Textbooks, sports paraphernalia, and hobbies, for example, might be arranged to catch the eye upon entering the church for a school Mass, but they are not the gifts of the Eucharist.

Gifts are brought up in procession by “the faithful,” who hand them to the priest or deacon (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 73). After handing them over, some people make the Sign of the Cross, genuflect, bow, or do none of the above. The GIRM gives no instructions about what to do. The Ceremonial of Bishops says, “A deep bow is made to the altar by all who enter the sanctuary (chancel), leave it, or pass before the altar” (72). It would be most appropriate if those who bring up the gifts made a profound bow to the altar just before returning to their places.

SAINT OF THE MONTH

Saint Monica (331-387)

Feast Day: August 27

Patron Saint of wives and abuse victims

Saint Monica, also known as Monica of Hippo, is St. Augustine of Hippo's mother. She was born in 331 A.D. in Tagaste, which is present-day Algeria.

As was customary, Monica married a man that her family had chosen for her. Together they had three children. But Monica's was not a happy marriage. Her husband, Patricius, was an unkind man. He had a violent temper and also had a habit of wasting all of their money.

Despite his faults, Monica loved her husband. She dreamed of a better life for herself and her children. Monica had always been very religious and turned to God in her time of need. She was determined that her husband and children should become Christians.

At first, Monica's husband was completely against the idea. He believed he had no need to know God. But soon, Monica's devotion to her faith moved her husband, and he agreed to be baptized. Monica's son Augustine was enrolled as a catechumen as young child. It was the custom in those days to delay Baptism for infants and children; they were baptized later in life.

As a young man Augustine was not interested in God or religion, in fact he led a rather corrupt life. Monica prayed for him every day—for more than 17 years! Finally he changed his life and agreed to be baptized. Later, he would become one of the foremost religious people of his time. His writings are still studied today. Augustine was made a saint in his own right.

Monica died in 387, and had it not been for her dedication and devotion, the world may not have ever known St. Augustine.

THE DIGNITY OF WORK AND THE RIGHTS OF WORKERS: HOW OUR CHURCH'S RICH SOCIAL DOCTRINE INFORMS TODAY'S FAITH-LABOR LANDSCAPE

THURSDAY NOON
 AUG 21, 2025 1:00 PM

Some people refer to Catholic Social Teaching as the "best kept secret" of the Catholic Church. Hidden within that "secret" is another unknown reality: the social doctrine of the Church has its foundation in labor and the dignity of working people. As we approach Labor Day in early September, come learn about this principle of Catholic Social Teaching, exploring its historical and theological foundations, as well as the landscape and practice of Church-Labor partnerships today.
