What is Partners in the Gospel?

Partners in the Gospel (PITG) is a strategic pastoral planning effort taking place across the Archdiocese of Seattle since 2023. Its goal is to re-invigorate and renew our local Catholic Church. It is a significant process of restructuring to maximize our existing pastoral leadership and provide a sustainable structure for the future. It will allow us to keep our parishes and schools vibrant and mission-focused.

The fruit of this discernment will be the One Parish Plan, which will be submitted to the Archbishop as part of forming the new unified parish.

To learn more about the PITG process, visit archseattle.org/partners.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 8 - Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

When your fasting feeds the hungry, a new day dawns.

Isaiah 58:7-10

Psalm

"The just man is a light in darkness to the upright."

Psalm 112

Second Reading

Paul's message doesn't rest on his own wisdom but on the power of the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:1-5

Gospel

You are the salt of the earth and the light of the world.

Matthew 5:13-16

Light binds together today's scripture readings. Isaiah preaches that when we share what we have with those in need, light will drive out the dark. In the psalm we sing that the one who acts with justice is a light in the darkness. Paul tells the Corinthians that the power of the Holy Spirit has enlightened their faith. In the Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples to let their light shine, so the world can see the good that they do. As we listen to the words of scripture, let us appreciate the metaphor of light in expressing what God asks us to do.

Our mission is to grow in community and faith with other Catholic young adults (21-35) within our Parish Family 14 community. We strive to have people come together to ignite a community that lives the true mission of the Church. We offer men's and women's bible study groups, monthly events, and volunteer opportunities.

FAITH IN FOCUS

Dance

“Let them praise [God’s] name in dance” (Psalm 149:3).

“Praise [the Lord] with tambourines and dance” (Psalm 150:4).

“And all shall sing in their festive dance” (Psalm 87:7).

“David and all Israel danced before God with great enthusiasm, amid songs and music” (1 Chronicles 13:8).

“Then young women shall make merry and dance. . . . I will turn their mourning into joy” (Jeremiah 31:13).

FROM ANCIENT times, faithful people have praised God with dance. Prayer may involve the sound of the singing voice or the silence of a fixed gaze. The body may participate with folded hands and bowed heads, or in the more complex ways of dance. St. Teresa of Avila, St. Philip Neri, and St. Gerald Majella are among those who incorporated dance in their prayer. Even today, dance is one way that some people lift their minds and hearts to God in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

Liturgical dance has never been an official part of the universal Roman liturgy. But there are plenty of examples of sung and instrumental music, vocal and silent prayer. Still, some Catholics have danced to express their religious sentiments before God. In 1975, the Vatican said dance “cannot be introduced into liturgical celebrations” in the West, because it relates to the “profaneness” of Western culture (Notitiae 11, CDWDS). However, dance has continued in some liturgical celebrations throughout the world, even at Masses with the pope.

Because dance is still unusual in liturgical prayer, many Catholics sense discomfort when it is presented. But those who dance usually do so because of their faith, in hopes of lifting the thoughts of others up from malice and toward prayer.

CALLED BY NAME
PRAY • DISCERN • INVITE

Called By Name weekend is January 31 & February 1, 2026.

Do you know someone aged 16-35 who might be called to the priesthood or religious life? Our Lord often calls young people forth through family, friends, teachers, mentors, and parishioners. Like Philip inviting Nathanael to "come and see," prayerfully consider those you know who show signs of a call through their love of the Lord, our Church, and their heart of service. Nominate someone by February 13, and they will receive a letter from Archbishop Etienne to encourage and support them in their discernment. There will also be an opportunity to attend an Operation Andrew or Miriam dinner, where they will learn more about these vocations and interact with their peers. More info at archseattle.org/called-by-name.

Scout Sunday

February 7 | 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM | St. James Cathedral

To complement the 100th anniversary of the presentation of the very first Ad Altare Dei religious emblem for Scouts, all Scouts are invited to this special Mass with Bishop Eusebio Elizondo. Scouts will be leading our liturgical ministries and Bishop Elizondo will bless religious emblems of all Scouts in the archdiocese who have earned them. Scouts and adult Scouters should bring their earned emblems and wear their Scouting uniform. A simple reception will follow after Mass. Please register at <https://bit.ly/45tsnOL>

Questions? E-mail Andrew Casad at acasad@odea.org.

More information about religious emblems for Scouts can be found here: <https://nccs-bsa.org/religious-emblems>
