Memorial Day

Honoring All Who Served

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

"They threw him out of the city and began to stone him. As they were stoning Stephen, he called out, 'Lord Jesus receive my spirit.' Then he fell to his knees and cried out in a loud voice, 'Lord do not hold this sin against them.' And when he had said this he fell asleep."

We find two important persons in the selection from the Acts of the Apostles. Saul the persecutor and Stephen the deacon martyr. Perhaps the witness of Stephen was the first step for Saul's conversion. He was going to persecute Christians and met the Lord on the road to Damascus. As he watched, perhaps he heard the words of Stephen. The words of Stephen echo two of the traditional last words spoken by Jesus from the cross.

May we find such expressions in our daily lives, seeking and offering forgiveness for the hurts and bruises which afflict us. May we have the courage to turn our lives over to the Lord daily, and repeat this dedication as we draw our last breath. Forgiveness and resignation to God's will as both gifts as well as wishes. The recently canonized St. Charles de Foucauld's prayer of abandonment speaks of resignation to the will of God.

A LOOK AHEAD: READINGS FOR JUNE 5, 2022

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

The disciples were celebrating Pentecost together when "tongues of fire appeared which parted, then came to rest on each of them." The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in foreign tongues. Visitors from many different countries were amazed that each guest could hear his or her native language being spoken as the disciples proclaimed God's glory.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Each person has received different manifestations of the same spirit to contribute to the common good of all. All members of the church have been baptized into one body because of our belief in the Holy Spirit, who was sent to us by God.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus appeared to the disciples even though they had locked the doors in fear. Jesus then showed the disciples his hands and his side; and they rejoiced at his presence. He breathed on them saying "Receive the Holy Spirit." He then gave the disciples the power to forgive others or hold them accountable for their sins.
