Gospel Today

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time | Luke 21:5-19

Before Jesus comes again the earth will see great unrest. Jesus reminds His followers to remain faithful and "not a hair on your head will be destroyed."

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

“But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays... See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he’ and ‘the time has come.’ Do not follow them for I myself will give wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute... by your perseverance you will save your lives.”

As we approach the end of the church year it is well for us to consider our own frailty, our mortality, and whether we are prepared to meet our maker. It will be easy for us when we follow the advice we have just read, for if we are honest, we know our society embraces different values and offers a different goal for happiness. We are sometimes attracted by those different values.

As disciples we consider the invitation and gift of salvation which comes from Jesus Christ and strive to live each day, from this day forward, looking forward to our final destiny, union with Christ.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR LUTHERAN CARE RESIDENTS

Dear Friends of Lutheran Care Center at St. Stans,

We are once again asking for your assistance in providing our residents with a memorable Christmas. We are so pleased here that our situation has regained some of its normalcy yet the struggle with Covid is ongoing!

Donations need to be delivered to Lutheran Care Center by December 15, 2022, therefore to St. Stan's the week before.

We will be collecting the Unwrapped gifts after this weekend's Feast of St. Stanislaus Kostka. The Bin will be in the Hall vestibule for the collection.

WIDOWS AND WIDOWERS

The Catholic Widows & Widowers will meet on Tuesday, November 15, 2022 (and every 3rd Tuesday of the Month) at 7:00pm in the Parish meeting room of St. Kateri Church in LaGrange, NY. If you have any questions, call Joan at 845-475-4292.

A LOOK AHEAD: READINGS FOR NOVEMBER 20, 2022

First Reading: 2 Samuel 5:1-3

Samuel describes how all the tribes of Israel went to David in Hebron and said they were his bone and his flesh and it was he who led them back to Israel. The Lord told David he would be a shepherd to His people. David made an agreement with the elders and was anointed king.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:12-20

Paul explains to the Colossians that God has made them fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light and that through the Son we have redemption and forgiveness of sin. He describes Jesus as the image of the invisible God, the head of the church and in Him all things hold together.

Gospel: Luke 23:35-43

Jesus is mocked by the crowd as he hung on the cross. Above him was an inscription that read “This is the king of the Jews.” One of the men being crucified with Jesus tells Him to save them and Himself, while the other asks that he be remembered when Jesus is in his kingdom. Jesus said in reply, “Amen I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

HELP WANTED: One down but a few to go...

We are happy that our request for help with caring for the Office and Fr. Jay's house has been filled and would now like to focus on our need for your help at Masses after our Patron Saint's Feast. We are looking for families and individuals to help at Mass as GREETERS before and after each Mass, VOLUNTEERS to bring the gifts to the Altar and young people (grades 4 through 12) and even adults who would like to be trained as ALTAR SERVERS. Please look for the sign-up sheets that will be appearing starting next week at the Church exits. However, you may also get a jump on things by calling the Office (845-635-1700) this week. To paraphrase an old campaign slogan, Uncle St. Stan needs you!
