Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: [www.allsouls Sanford.org/reconciliation](http://www.allsouls Sanford.org/reconciliation)

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. ## Scripture Reflection 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing." Martha was caught up in a whirlwind of her own making. She stressed herself out with all the tasks and chores she thought she had to do to host Jesus, but Jesus wasn't the one who expected all of that. He just wanted Martha's presence, her company and friendship. His only expectation was that Martha would prepare for him her heart, but she was fixated on preparing her home instead.

How often do we create a similar whirlwind in our lives? How often do we fixate on external details, on making a good impression, on having all appearances looking just so, but forget what really matters? How often do we make ourselves "anxious and worried" about all we think we have to do? In today's Gospel Jesus calls us to stop the frenetic activity of our lives, to pause and listen, imitating Mary "who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak."

This can seem impossible. We look at our calendars and our to-do lists and cannot find a single slot in which to squeeze quiet prayer or silent spiritual listening. But Jesus asks us to reorganize our priorities. He tells us, "There is need of only one thing." Really, Jesus? Have you seen our lists!? What can we possibly eliminate? Don't we need to do all of this?

The Lord says no. What we need to do is to make time to be with him. The same Lord who turned water into wine and fed five thousand men with five loaves of bread and two fish can also multiply our time. So instead of being like Martha who tried to tell Jesus what to do—"Tell her to help me" - Let's be like Mary who listened to what Jesus had to say.

16° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Este domingo la primera lectura nos narra la misteriosa visita de tres personajes que llegan a la tienda de Abraham el que se desvive por atenderlos, su hospitalidad es de primera clase. Se preocupa de recibir a sus visitantes con un suculento banquete desde que llegan su actitud de servicio y disponibilidad son asombrosos. El centro fundamental de la narración es la promesa del hijo. ¿Qué podemos aprender de Abraham sobre la hospitalidad? ¿Cómo implementarla en nuestras comunidades multiculturales? Si al menos hoy nos detuviéramos un poquito en ver la manera de cómo nos tratamos los unos a los otros en el aspecto de la hospitalidad -dejaríamos de hacer mal al prójimo y respetaríamos al vecino. ¡Viviríamos en paz y armonía!

En el relato del Evangelio, se nos narra otro aspecto relacionado con la hospitalidad a partir del contraste entre las personalidades de las dos hermanas que reciben a Jesús en su casa. María contempla, Marta actúa. Ambas acciones son buenas, pero, deben tener balance. Hay un dicho popular que dice: "Ni tanto que queme al santo ni tanto que no lo alumbré". Es decir, las preocupaciones de la vida no deben ahogar la semilla de la Palabra de Dios, el vivir siempre en acción, en este caso, impide ver las cosas bellas del Reino. Lo importante de estas lecturas es que tomemos en cuenta lo siguiente. Recibir al Señor que pasa en cada acontecimiento de la vida. Reconocer su presencia en cada uno de nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Saber que siempre el Señor nos acoge en su casa si hay arrepentimiento. ¡Teniendo a Jesús en casa, nada más es necesario!

Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

When we realize we are going to have company, my family and I swing into motion with a frenzy. No dust shall be present for our guests. The bathrooms will be spotless and toilets worthy of the name "throne." We must run to the store so that an endless supply of refreshments and snacks greet our distinguished guests. We never want to be seen as bad hosts and, of course the real reason for all the commotion, we never want to be seen in our natural habitat of messy rooms and barren kitchens.

But what is real hospitality (a necessity for encouraging good stewardship and developing a sense of belonging)? In the Gospel of Luke, Mary knew. Martha was so busy preparing and serving, while Mary simply sat with Jesus and listened to him. This is not to say that she did not prepare for her Guest by making a proper place for gathering. But when a guest is already received, true hospitality begins with being present to and engaging him or her. Part of the message in this story is that we all need to pause and listen to the good news that Jesus preaches, but also we can learn a lesson about good hospitality from it as well.

How many times have we been more concerned with appearances and outward things than what we have inside each of us to share? Christian hospitality calls for the Jesus in me to meet with the Jesus in you. We are called to be fully present to one another, with no distractions of technology or the world standing in our way. This is choosing "the better part." For what does it profit a man if he has all the beer and wine in the world, and a spotless home with the greatest of technology, and loses his attention in the conversation with his brother or sister to the game on television? (Or something like that!)

Make All Souls your parish home, today!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?

We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy forever the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SAINT OF THE WEEK MARY MAGDALENE FIRST CENTURY FEAST—JULY 22

Mary, from Magdala in Galilee, was a disciple of Jesus who used her resources, or wealth, to help support him and his followers. The Gospel of Luke identifies Mary as the woman from whom Jesus cast out seven demons. The Gospels record that she was present at his crucifixion and burial. In all four Gospels, Mary was the first witness to the Resurrection and carried that news to the others. Because of this, St. Augustine called her “apostola apostolorum,” the apostle to the apostles. On June 3, 2016, Pope Francis raised her liturgical observance from a memorial to a feast—the same rank as the observances accorded to the apostles.
