THE SACRAMENTS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsouls Sanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsouls Sanford.org

Scripture Reflection 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." For Jesus' original audience, this reference was meant for those Jews who presumed their salvation while judging others as being unworthy of entering the kingdom of God. Jesus was always quick to teach that believing in him was what mattered, not membership in a certain class or a particular religious circle. Therefore, some of the (last) Gentiles who professed faith in Jesus were ready to enter the kingdom before some of the (first) Jews who rejected the Messiah.

But we should not assume that this Gospel was only for those people in that time and place. Today, there is perhaps a different stratum of first and last. In our Christian era, we can be tempted to have the same presumptuous attitude that afflicted too many of the Jewish contemporaries of Christ. We can think that our salvation is assured just because we bear the title Christian. Likewise, we can fall prey to the idea that we are somehow better or more deserving of Christ's mercy than those who do not "belong" to our Church. This simply isn't true. God's mercy is available to everyone who humbly recognizes one's need for it. The minute we become complacent or overconfident, we close ourselves off to the gift of mercy God offers to the repentant sinner.

Jesus tells us today that we must "strive to enter through the narrow gate." This means that we must not take the easy road of presumption, assuming that we are in good shape because we look like most of the people around us. On the contrary, Jesus calls us to take the more challenging road of real repentance in order to "recline at table in the kingdom of God."

21° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Para entender el Evangelio y vivirlo debemos de tener un corazón puro y una mente abierta. La cerrazón de cabeza no lleva a ningún lado; hay que abrir el corazón a su palabra. Esto es lo que Isaías trataba de hacerle entender a la gente de su tiempo: "De entre ellos escogeré sacerdotes y levitas" (Is 66, 21). La lección puede ser aprovechada hoy en la comunidad de creyentes al aceptar sacerdotes de toda raza, color y de diferentes culturas para servir en nuestras parroquias. También es un verdadero gozo el poder colaborar y trabajar juntos con otras culturas y tradiciones.

El texto del Evangelio por el otro lado inicia con una pregunta que hacen los discípulos a Jesús. "¿Es verdad que son pocos los que se salvan?" La pregunta viene por la tendencia del pensamiento religioso de la época de Jesús. Según algunos se salvarían todos los hebreos que participaban del reino futuro, según otros solo los que observaban la ley. Jesús rompe el esquema y da respuesta para todos. No basta con ser religioso y fiel a las propias tradiciones, o cumplir con algunos preceptos. Lo único para Jesús es que haya un esfuerzo sincero en atravesar la puerta angosta. Es decir, no perder tanto tiempo en nuestras devociones e ideas religiosas, más bien pidamos que Dios nos dé fuerza de su Espíritu, para que superemos con valentía cristiana las pruebas que nos da la vida. Porque no vaya a ser que ni veamos esa puerta angosta entretenidos en otras cosas vanas de la vida. Ojo, recuerda: "Los que ahora son los últimos, serán los primeros; y los que ahora son los primeros, serán los últimos" (Lc 13, 30).

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last." Luke 13:30

Our standards in our society are so different from God's standards. We often rate or rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards.

At the heart of the Bible are the Psalms, prayers from God that help us learn to pray. These sacred hymns become our heartfelt response to God's loving and wondrous deeds for us.

Please join us for a 12 week study of Psalms: The School of Prayer beginning Mon., Sept. 12 at either 9:30 am or 6:30 pm in Suite C of the Parish Office. All Souls Catholic School Donor Appreciation Reception

Lake Forest Clubhouse
5350 Shoreline Circle
Sanford, FL 32771

Friday, September 17, 2016 – 6:30 PM

Mark your calendar for our next Donor Appreciation Reception, Saturday, September 17, 2016 at the Lake Forest Clubhouse. Everyone is invited! Our Donor Appreciation is a great opportunity to learn about our sponsorship program, meet school families, business partners, parishioners and alumni who are long-term supporters of our wonderful school. Join Fr. Medina for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres! This event is FREE but space is limited so contact the school office to RSVP 407.322.7090.

Make All Souls your parish home, today!

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today?

Welcome:

Steve, Kayla & Ella Hill and Michelle Demers

We Love New Members!

Please complete and return the white registration card found in the Narthex of the Church to ensure your official registration at All Souls Catholic Church!

2016 ELECTIONS: DISCERNING YOUR VOTE

Primary Election, August 30

General Election, November 8

ELECTION GUIDE & CANDIDATE QUESTIONNAIRE

The Catholic faithful are urged to choose their political leaders according to principle, not party affiliation or mere self-interest. We are called to political engagement shaped by the moral convictions of well-formed consciences and focused on the dignity of every human being, the pursuit of the common good, and the protection of the weak and the vulnerable. To help parishioners become informed on where candidates stand on key issues, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops has polled those running for U.S. Congress and the Florida Legislature. To see how candidates appearing on the August 30 Primary Election / November 8 General Election ballots responded to the questionnaire, visit : www.flaccb.org/2016-election-candidates.

Our Council of Catholic Women

We, the Sisters in Christ of All Souls Council of Catholic Women, wish all our Students a wonderful reunion with their Teachers, Cafeteria and Maintenance Workers and Friends. Studying and working together will assure all a very successful school year.

Lead with your heart....

Retreat for Widowed

San Pedro Spiritual Development Center will be offering "Joyful Again", a retreat for all widowed men and women on October 1 and 2, 2016.

This is a two-day retreat for widows and widowers who want to resolve the grief they feel inside and begin to live again after the death of their spouse.

Joyful Again is sponsored by the Diocese of Orlando, Office of Family Life and Pastoral Care. For more information or to make a reservation please contact: Sharon Groholski 386.717.4452.

Dear Parishioners, On occasion, you may see a family or a person asking for financial assistance outside of Church after Mass. Our hearts, filled with Christian charity want to help in some way— most especially if there are children involved. However, we ask that you please do not give money, but rather refer these people to our Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Our Vincentian volunteers are ever-ready to come to the aid of those in our community who seek assistance: 407.330.4400

Thank you!

If you've got what it takes to go round after round, then you'll enjoy BINGO with KofC. We offer three game packages plus extras, a snack bar and full meals, intermissions, and a guaranteed payout. Located in the Columbus Club of Sanford, 2509 Myrtle Ave, Sunday & Thursday night, 5:30pm. State law requires that all persons playing Bingo must be at least 18 years of age.

Remembering our deceased diocesan priests

Let us remember the truly remarkable priests who have impacted our lives and especially those deceased priests of the Diocese of Orlando.

Let us pray during this month of August for the repose of the soul of:

8	Rev. Sean Shine	2008
10	Rev. Richard Gaffney	1983
12	Rev. Patrick Grogan	1997
21	Rev. Edward O'Shea	1977
23	Rev. Edward Hughes	1992
26	Rev. Bronis Benesevich	1993
27	Rev. Patrick Murphy	1982

Prayer for our Deceased Priests: O God, you raised your servants, to the sacred priesthood of Jesus Christ, according to the Order of Melchisedech, giving them the sublime power to offer the Eternal Sacrifice, to bring the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ down upon the altar, and to absolve the sins of men in your own Holy Name. We beseech you to reward their faithfulness and to forget their faults, admitting them speedily into your holy Presence, there to enjoy forever the recompense of their labors. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint of the Week—Rose of Lima—Aug. 23rd

1586-1617—Born in Lima, Peru, the infant Isabel de Flores got her more familiar name from an Indian maid who said she was "like a rose." As a child Rose was given to fasting and mortification. After her parents refused to let her enter the convent and she refused to marry, she lived at home in seclusion.

At 20 she joined the Third Order of St. Dominic, using a backyard hut for prayer and caring for poor children and elderly sick in a one-room infirmary in her parents' home. She died at 31, and was declared the first saint from the Americas in 1671.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK:

God always respects our choices and never forces his love and mercy upon us. We choose to open the door and receive God's gift. We must constantly make choices that lead us to salvation so that we can become the best we can be. Making good choices will keep us in touch with God's love, which is available to all.
