THE SACRAMENTS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm or by calling the parish office to make an appointment with a priest. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulssanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Fr. Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the weekly homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name." This is not a pleasant prophecy. On the contrary, Jesus' somber words may strike us with a bit of fear and make us wonder if we will ever actually face such a tragic scenario. We are fortunate to live in a country where religious freedom is tolerated, and of course we hope that this continues to be the case. But the sad fact is that right now, there are Christians in other parts of the world who are living out the reality of these prophetic words. For these men, women, and children of faith, the name of Jesus truly is a cause of persecution and martyrdom.

Let us imagine for a moment that the tables were turned. Suppose we were the ones suffering from the violent advances of anti-Christian forces. Suppose we were the ones losing our homes, fleeing for our lives, tending to our wounded loved ones, or worse. Where would we look for help? To other Christians, most likely, to those who would sympathize with our commitments but who still had the resources to assist us.

We ARE those other Christians. We are the ones who share a common faith with these suffering brothers and sisters on the other side of the globe. We are the ones with the resources to help them, even if it is just in a small way. Our prayers for their protection and peace cannot be underestimated, but neither can we dismiss the significance of contributing in any way possible to those organizations that are working on the front lines to assist the suffering Church throughout the world. May we all do what we can to bring relief to those who need it most.

33º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El próximo domingo, con la fiesta de Cristo rey, finalizaremos el año litúrgico. Las celebraciones litúrgicas y las lecturas nos preparan ya desde hoy a este cierre. Dispuestos ya para dar comienzo al Adviento, que nos preparará a la Navidad. También llegamos al final con Jesús a Jerusalén que a lo largo del año acompañados de la mano del evangelista Lucas nos trajo hasta aquí. Estamos con Jesús en el corazón de la ciudad en el Templo, contemplando sus maravillas. Además, se nos habla del final de los tiempos, Jesús nos describe como una fotografía lo que entonces y ahora vivimos en la vida cotidiana. Guerras y revueltas, terremotos, hambre y peste. También, podríamos agregar situaciones fuertes de personas que emigran de sus lugares de origen buscando un mejor futuro. ¡El mundo sigue revuelto!

¿Qué significa todo esto? ¿Cómo nos sentimos al escuchar las lecturas de hoy? ¿Con miedo o con esperanza? La esperanza de la Iglesia en la constante invitación a la formación al discipulado debe ser un aliciente para todos nosotros. Trabajar con ahínco, unidos en familia, comunidad y sociedad en general, debe ser el compromiso de todo cristiano para lograr un mundo mejor. La actitud de seguir adelante es lo más importante. Poner atención sobre tantos falsos profetas de la actualidad que nos ofrecen bien facilita la comodidad y la riqueza como medios de salvación. Respétenlos, pero no hagamos tanto caso a sus propuestas. El mundo nuevo del que nos habla el Señor se construye con perseverancia y arduo trabajo. "Sin embargo, no caerá ningún cabello de la cabeza de ustedes. Si se mantienen firmes, conseguirán la vida" (Lc 21, 19).

Thank you from Father Medina...

I would like to extend a very sincere and heartfelt thank you to the Community Harvest Festival Committee, the Booth Captains, the Volunteers, our Festival Sponsors and Donors, and of course, to our entire parish community for making a reality this phenomenal annual event. Your hard work and dedication has resulted in so many positive comments from people in our greater community.

Thank you too, for ensuring that the All Souls Community Harvest Festival provides a much needed welcoming atmosphere of safe, wholesome fun and great entertainment for our parish families and the families in the greater Sanford area.

Our sincere congratulations to Liliana Oropeza (pictured above) for winning the $2500 Raffle Grand Prize at our Harvest Festival! Second prize of $500 went to Joe & Cathie Durkin and our third prize winner was Michelle Murphy!

Thank you all so very much for supporting our community Harvest Festival!

Join Our Family of Faith

Often people attend Mass at All Souls for several years, but never register. Registering here is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of All Souls Church. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and even funerals. A registered parishioner receives all parish mailings, too.

Church law advises that territories or boundaries no longer limit parish registration. All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. In order to register, you need to complete a registration card. These may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today? We Love New Members!

A special All Souls welcome to:

Maryalice Moran

Gary & Kathleen Godard

Please complete and return the white registration card found in the Narthex of the Church to ensure your official registration at All Souls Catholic Church!

The Holy League

Men of the parish are invited to the next meeting of The Holy League at the Historic Chapel on Thursday, November 17th at 7pm. The purpose of the Holy League is to bring men closer to Christ by spending quiet time with him. We will spend the time in Adoration, hear a brief reflection on the life of Jesus the man and the Sacrament of Confession will be available if any man wants it. We are in a spiritual warfare and our families need men who are ready for the battle. All men are invited including sons.

For more information, visit the website of HOLY LEAGUE: holyleague.com or email Len Breehl at lbreehl@yahoo.com

That Man Is YOU!

Men of the parish are invited to join us each Monday morning or each Saturday morning at 6:00 am (a repeat of the Monday morning meeting), at the Knights of Columbus Meeting Hall, 2509 S. Oak Ave., Sanford. That Man is You! honestly addresses the pressures and temptations that men face, especially those relating to their roles as husbands and fathers. Contact Scott Kinser: scottkinser@gmail.com for more information.

What is a Parish Mission?

An FYI about Parish Missions (taken from OSV)

A parish mission is a time of grace, a time for repentance, for change, for becoming a renewed person

Parish missions today include eschatological elements, however, the main emphasis is centered upon how much the loving Lord desires to encounter and save each one of us.

There are people who offer good courses on prayer, the liturgy, pastoral involvement, or instruction about Social Justice, but to equate these activities to a parish mission is misleading. Obviously, these other services are important elements in a full Christian life, but a parish mission touches the very core of a Christian's being, moves his or her heart either to recall (or learn for the first time) how passionate God's love is for each and every one of his sons and daughters, and how far a person can stray from this covenant.

Please see the insert in today's bulletin on how you can help make our parish mission a success and read a brief introduction to our Mission leader, Fr. Joseph Mary Deane, CFR

Please mark your calendars now and plan to attend!

Our Adoration Chapel—is open Monday through Friday from 9 am to 9 pm. Please plan a visit to relax and pray before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Before your first visit to the Adoration Chapel, please stop by the parish office for important information you need to know.

Jesus often preached that his kingdom is not of this world. He also instructed the disciples that the end of the world as we know it would eventually come but provided no details about the time. For those who are called to live by faith it is not important to know. Cultivating an attitude of trust that God will take care of all things in God's time is the goal of every believer.

This week, the Sanctuary Light in our Church & Chapel burns for the deceased friends and benefactors of All Souls Catholic Church. May they rest in eternal peace..

All are welcome here... If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul

How You Help Us Help Others: A gentleman rang the bell at the SVDP House and quietly asked for some assistance on his electric bill as he's been out of work for a bit. He had walked to the House and was hungry and tired. We gave him water and a snack bar while he rested. He began talking and telling us how blessed he is and how wonderful God is to us always. After his meeting he stopped and prayed with all of us working there.

Food Pantry Needs of the Week: Snack bars and crackers. Last Week: 238 items with a retail value of $667. Thanks Heathrow Women's Club, Faith Formation and our All Souls family!

It's the season of giving! St. Vincent de Paul needs your support now more than ever. Donate your vehicle to support our non-profit and receive a tax deduction. The process is simple; the pick-up is free. Contact us now for more information: 800.322.8284 or visit svdporlando.org

Vincentian Reflection: The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. St. Vincent often asked this simple question: "What would Jesus Christ do, if he were in my place now?" Then ask yourself: "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then make your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.
