A Big & Heartfelt Thank you...

Dearest All Souls Catholic Church,

I want to take a moment to offer a big Thank You for such a loving send off this past weekend. Both the English and Hispanic Communities shared the love of God in such a special way. I have had such a wonderful time here in these past four years and all of you have been so good to me.

As I journey to St. Peter Catholic Church in Deland, know that all of you will not only be so geographically close to me, but much more: closer in my heart!

Additionally, I would like to announce that our dynamic Faith Formation Director, Jenny Mansingh will be leaving us in order to pursue ministerial interests. I have worked with Jenny since my arrival four years ago and her gifts and talents in the Faith Formation Department have blessed the life of our parish! Thank you Jenny for your time and commitment—you will be missed, but as you journey forth, our prayers go with you.

Very Sincerely,

Father Medina

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel offers a rare framework—a story in a story. Most of the healing miracles are standalone encounters. One person approaches Jesus, demonstrates faith, and is healed. The evangelist tells the next story. This Gospel, however, is different. Jesus is on his way to heal one person, a young girl of twelve, and is interrupted on his journey by "a woman afflicted with hemorrhages." She bravely approaches Jesus in a crowd, despite being ritually unclean from her bleeding, and stretches out to touch his cloak. She is healed! Jesus meets her eye, confirms her faith, and continues on to resurrect the young girl.

Reading this passage, it might be easier to identify with one story—the long-suffering woman or the young, innocent girl—and to move past the other. But here they sit side by side. The girl is twelve. The woman has been suffering for twelve years. For the Gospel writers, number parallels have deep symbolic meaning.

Between the woman and the young girl, we are not one or the other. We are both. None of us had a perfect childhood, perfect families, or a perfect peer group. As we endure pain, disappointment, or unmet expectations, it can feel like a part of our childhood hopes have died. Our coping mechanisms, social adaptations, and hidden secrets can make us the "walking wounded" in some respects. Jesus wants to do more than simply staunch the bleeding. His healing hand makes dead things come alive. He awakens the dreams that are asleep. This process requires prayer, conversations with trusted community and spiritual mentors, and critical looks at difficult areas of our life. However, we can believe the words of our Lord. If we approach Jesus in faith, believing that he wants to heal and save, we, too, will hear his calming words spoken over the hurts of our life. "I say to you, arise!" "Go in peace."

The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45pm to 4:45pm. Learn more about this beautiful sacrament by visiting our website: www.allsoulssanford.org/reconciliation

The Sacrament of Baptism: Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment with Father Kenneth Metz to have your child baptized. Ask us about the requirements for Godparents.

The Sacrament of Marriage: Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact Ann Cammarata at the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial: Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Our Online Homilies: If you missed Mass over the weekend you may view the homily by visiting: www.allsoulssanford.org

Make All Souls your parish home!

All are welcome here... If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry.

If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

All Souls accepts anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. Please register as an affirmation of your wish to share in the community life of All Souls. Registration cards may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week, or online at our parish website: www.allsoulssanford.org. Why not sign up today? We love new members!

The Knights of Columbus

Did you know? The nearly 2 million members of the Knights of Columbus form the largest Catholic fraternal group in existence? As Knights, we serve our parish and community while working each day to create a better world through charity. If you are looking to live out your faith in the spirit of charity by helping others, our Knights of Columbus council welcomes you to join them. The council meets at 7 pm on the first Tuesdays of each month at the Columbus Club of Sanford, 2509 Myrtle Ave., Sanford. First Tuesdays are Social meetings, and everyone is invited.

For more information contact our Grand Knight at 407.493.0785.

Live the Liturgy—

God does not rejoice in our demise or our destruction. Rather, He made us in His image and desires that we have life. He also desires that we be healed and know His loving touch. There is great power in an embrace. The touch of another can heal wounds and restore life. There is also power in faith. Faith can turn us toward the truth and turn us toward God. God can profoundly change how we see Him, ourselves, and one another. God desires that we turn toward Him and be healed of all that wounds and binds us so that we can be free and enjoy the fullness of life. Reach out and share your faith with someone this week so that they can receive God's life-changing embrace.

Vivir la Liturgia—Inspiración de la Semana

Dios no se regocija en nuestra muerte o destrucción. En cambio, nos hizo a su imagen y quiere que tengamos vida. También quiere que seamos sanados y que conozcamos su toque de amor. Hay gran poder en un abrazo. El toque de otros puede sanar heridas y restaurar la vida. También hay poder en la fe. La fe puede volvernos a la verdad y a Dios. Dios puede cambiar radicalmente cómo lo vemos a Él, cómo nos vemos a nosotros mismos y cómo vemos a los demás. Dios quiere que nos volvamos a Él y seamos sanados de todo lo que nos hiere y nos ata, para que podamos ser libres y disfrutar de una vida plena. Acércate a alguien y testificalo de tu fe esta semana para que pueda recibir el abrazo de Dios que le cambie la vida.

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: According to the Jewish sage, "God did not make death." How then did death enter into the world, according to Wisdom?

Second Reading: Paul encourages the wealthier Christians in Corinth to help the needy in the community out of their abundance. In what ways do you live by this spiritual practice?

Gospel Reading: We hear two healing miracles in today's Gospel reading, both of which connect one's faith to healing. When has your faith led to healing?
