"Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God." - Jn 1:34

A Community Centered In Christ, Nurtured by the Sacraments & Teachings of the Church; Committed to Excellence In Education, Living A Life of Service, Leadership, and Compassion.

Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

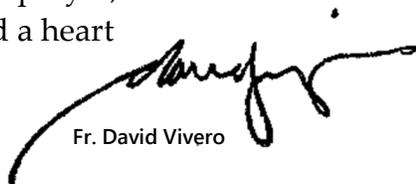

John testified saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

Reflection:

John didn't know who Jesus was, yet after witnessing everything the Lord has revealed to him, he prominently proclaimed, "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world." The link of the Lamb to our Lord Jesus Christ has a powerful impact not only in early Christianity but also today.

God uses a lamb as a sign, that love takes time to heal, to win over, and to triumph. John the Baptist allowed himself to be obedient and trusting in the Lord amidst confusion and perhaps doubt. The fourth priority of our parish plan speaks about STEWARDSHIP. Our Time and Talent.

As we receive and welcome Jesus in the Eucharist can we allow the lamb of God to transform us by developing a heart of prayer, a heart to learn to follow His ways, and a heart to share our love to those in need?

Fr. David Vivero

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

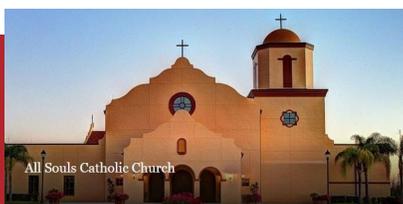

Juan dio este testimonio: «He visto al Espíritu bajar del cielo como una paloma y quedarse sobre él. Yo no lo conocía, pero Aquel que me envió a bautizar con agua, me dijo también: Verás al Espíritu bajar sobre aquél que ha de bautizar con el Espíritu Santo, y se quedará en él. Sí, yo lo he visto; y declaro que éste es el Elegido de Dios."

Reflexión"

Juan todavía no sabía quién era Jesús, pero al ser testigo de todo lo que el Señor le había revelado, el proclamó prominentemente: "Ahí viene el Cordero de Dios, el que quita el pecado del mundo" El enlace del Cordero a nuestro Señor Jesucristo tiene un poderoso impacto, no solamente en los antiguos tiempo del cristianismo, sino también hoy.

Dios usa al Cordero como una señal que el amor toma tiempo para sanar, para conquistar, y para triunfar. Juan el Bautista se permitió ser obediente y confiar en Dios en el medio de momentos de confusión y quizás duda. La cuarta prioridad de nuestro plan de parroquia habla de la MAYORDOMÍA – nuestros Tiempo y Talento.

Al recibir a Jesús y darle la bienvenida por medio de la Eucaristía, ¿podemos permitir que el Cordero de Dios nos transforme, desarrollando un corazón de oración, un corazón que aprende a seguir Sus caminos, y un corazón que comparte nuestro amor con aquellos que lo necesitan?

Gospel Meditation For Your Day

“On the cusp of fame, power, or influence, would you turn it down? Today’s Gospel again features John the Baptist. Controversial but popular, John has gathered quite a group of followers. He has disciples. People come from near and far to be baptized by him. Pharisees and government leaders are drawn to his preaching. If John was another man, a lesser man, he would have claimed his own greatness. Instead, John the Baptist is a witness to humility.

“The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and said, ‘Behold the Lamb of God ... he is the one of whom I said, “A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me.” ... the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known.” Rather than point to himself, John points to Christ. John could have grasped at what he had accumulated. He could have seen Jesus as a Messianic competitor. Instead, John knows who he is. He knows his place as forerunner. Because John knows who Jesus is. “I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God.”

A life of humility, a life for others, can be challenging to live. So much of our culture is built around achieve- ment and individualism. We can justify it, too, in pursuit of “greater goods” and higher ideals. In the process, however, we might miss our own participation in the kingdom of God. John, for all of his humility, was not an afterthought. In another Gospel passage, Jesus calls him “the greatest prophet,” even the greatest of men. Why? Because he fulfills the mission given to him by God: to announce the coming of the Messiah. We too are prophets and forerunners. Our witness to the Gospel is meant to point people to Jesus. Consider your own mission this week. To whom are you called to announce the good news of the Son of God?©LPI

We Serve...

When staffers at Catholic Charities first met Jess, she was anxious. The young mother hoped for help with an apartment. Jess had spent nearly 10 years in a very difficult relationship. But four years ago she found the courage to leave. Her daughters were just 4 and 5 at the time. On Dec. 20th, she received a surprise that was a long time coming — keys to her new home thanks to Catholic Charities of Central Florida. “There is no better gift for the holidays than to bestow on another family their own home. It’s just a great privilege. Catholic Charities has given me everything — everything I could have hoped for.”

A family finds a home just before Christmas, thanks to Catholic Charities and SVDP.

Welcome!

All Are Welcome Here

If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely — with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

Our Parish, Our Future...

A Spiritual Reflection for The New Year

Happy New Year, Happy New Decade, and Happy New You!

Our Advent Gift Cards to the Baby Jesus remained by His side at the manger during the Christmas season. Let's reflect on what steps we've already taken on our Journey to Bethlehem.

If you have time today, why not do an examen? An examen, or "examination of conscience," is a practice in which you reflect on where God has been active in your life. Miracles happen every day. You can do this each day or for a whole year, too, and now is the perfect time! How did 2019 go for you, spiritually? What goals do you have for 2020? Keep a Spiritual Journal. You'll be amazed at what you find when you read it over a year from now! Give yourself some time, maybe 30 minutes or more:

- 1) Invite God to join you. Remember that you're in God's presence. That's essential for any prayer. You're not just talking to yourself. You're actually talking with God. Imagine God sitting right there with you!
- 2) Call to mind what you're grateful for. Think of all the wonderful things that happened to you this past year. Take your time. Savor this, and give thanks to God. Even if you've had a bad year, there's still probably something that you can appreciate.
- 3) Review the year. Go month by month, or do it by topic—family, friends, work, church, and so on. Reflect back and notice where God was present. When did you say yes to God's invitation to greater things, and how might God be calling you to do something now?
- 4) Express your sorrow. Have you done things you regret? We all have. Tell God you're sorry. If you've really hurt someone, the New Year is a good time to seek forgiveness. Think about going to confession for any grave sin. But don't beat yourself up: you're human, and we all make mistakes. Work to fix them.
- 5) Ask God for the grace to live 2020 as a person of faith. All of us have things that we'll need God's grace to face: health problems, financial problems, family problems, work problems. So ask God for help. Be specific about what you want and need.
- 6) Review the Spiritual Reflection Matrix from Advent. What will your NEXT STEP be along the journey? Ask God to be with you and help you take that step.

Happy New Year, and Happy New You!

Una Reflexión Espiritual Para El Nuevo Año

¡Feliz Año Nuevo, Feliz Década Nueva, y Feliz Nuevo Usted!

Nuestras tarjetas de regalo de Adviento para el bebé Jesús permanecieron a su lado en el pesebre durante la temporada de Navidad. Ahora, reflejemos sobre los pasos que ya hemos tomado en nuestra jornada hacia Belén.

Si tienen tiempo hoy, ¿Por qué no hacer un examen de conciencia? Esta es una práctica en la cual reflejamos sobre los lugares en los cuales Dios ha estado activo en nuestras vidas. Los milagros ocurren todos los días. Ustedes pueden practicar este examen cada día, o reflejar sobre un año entero también. ¡Así que este es el momento perfecto! ¿Cómo fue el 2019 para ustedes, en términos espirituales? ¿Qué metas tienen para el 2020? Mantengan un diario de su jornada espiritual. ¡Se asombrarán de lo que encuentran cuando lo leen en más de un año! Separen algún tiempo para hacer esto, quizás 30 minutos o más:

- 1) Inviten a Dios a participar junto a ustedes. Recuerden que están en la presencia de Dios. Esto es esencial para cualquier oración. No están hablando con si mismos. Están hablando con Dios. ¡Imagínenlo a Dios sentado allí mismo a su lado!
- 2) Llaman a su mente las cosas por las cuales están agradecidos. Piensen en todas las cosas maravillosas que les han ocurrido en el pasado año. Tómense su tiempo. Saboreen esto, y den las gracias a Dios. Inclusive si tuvieron un año difícil, seguramente todavía hay algo que pueden apreciar.
- 3) Repasen el año. Examínenlo mes por mes, o tópicos por tópicos—familia, amigos, trabajo, iglesia... y todo lo demás. Reflejen sobre el pasado para darse cuenta donde Dios estuvo presente. ¿Cuándo le dijeron que sí a la invitación de Dios para cosas más grandes, y cómo puede Dios estar llamándolos a realizar algo en este momento?
- 4) Expresen su dolor. ¿Han hechos cosas de las cuales se arrepienten? Todos lo hemos hecho. Díganle a Dios que lo sienten mucho. Si han lastimado a alguien, el Nuevo Año es un buen momento para pedir perdón. Consideren confesarse por un pecado grave. Pero no se castiguen; todos somos humanos y cometemos errores. Trabajen para mejorarse y no hacerlo otra vez.
- 5) Pídanle a Dios que les otorgue la gracia para vivir como una persona de fe en el 2020. Todos tenemos cosas en nuestra vida que requerirán la gracia de Dios para enfrentar: problemas de salud, problemas financieros, problemas familiares, problemas en el trabajo. Así que pídanle a Dios su ayuda. Sean específicos en decirle lo que quieren y necesitan.
- 6) Repasen la Matriz Espiritual de el Adviento. ¿Cuál será su próximo paso en la jornada? Pídanle a Dios que esté con ustedes y que los ayude a tomar ese próximo paso.

¡Feliz Año Nuevo, y Feliz Nuevo Usted!

Share Your Story...

As a child of God, you have a powerful story to tell. Sharing how you came to Jesus and the difference he's made in your life can help others discover how they, too, can know God personally.

A personal account of what Christ has done in your life is compelling. One's personal encounter with God cannot be easily dismissed. A changed life is dramatic evidence of God's power.

Maybe you're afraid to share your story or faith because you don't know what to say. Remember that God does not call the equipped; He equips the called—and as Christians, we are all called to share what Christ has done in our lives. Some of Christ's last words on earth were, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations..." (Matthew 28:19). Sharing our faith isn't just a suggestion, it's a command. And God is with us when we obey Him.

Share your story and faith with others today, by emailing your personal witness to our staff at bulletin@allsoulssanford.org. Keep stories short, about 175 words or less. If your story is selected, we'll publish it (anonymously) in a future issue of this Bulletin.

Celebrate The Gospel of Life Prayer

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life: Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time. Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel as a gift ever new, the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will, the civilization of truth and love, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. — Evangelium Vitae

St. Francis de Sales

(August 21, 1567 – December 28, 1622)

Francis was destined by his father to be a lawyer so that the young man could eventually take his elder's place as a senator from the province of Savoy in France. For this reason Francis was sent to Padua to study law. After receiving his doctorate, he returned home and, in due time, told his parents he wished to enter the priesthood. His father strongly opposed Francis in this, and only after much patient persuasiveness on the part of the gentle Francis did his father finally consent. Francis was ordained and elected provost of the Diocese of Geneva, then a center for the Calvinists. Francis set out to convert them, especially in the district of Chablais. By preaching and distributing the little pamphlets he wrote to explain true Catholic doctrine, he had remarkable success.

At 35, he became bishop of Geneva. While administering his diocese he continued to preach, hear confessions, and catechize the children. His gentle character was a great asset in winning souls. He practiced his own axiom, "A spoonful of honey attracts more flies than a barrelful of vinegar."

Besides his two well-known books, the Introduction to the Devout Life and A Treatise on the Love of God, he wrote many pamphlets and carried on a vast correspondence. For his writings, he has been named patron of the Catholic Press. His writings, filled with his characteristic gentle spirit, are addressed to lay people. He wants to make them understand that they too are called to be saints. As he wrote in The Introduction to the Devout Life: "It is an error, or rather a heresy, to say devotion is incompatible with the life of a soldier, a tradesman, a prince, or a married woman.... It has happened that many have lost perfection in the desert who had preserved it in the world."

St. Francis de Sales is the Patron Saint of Authors, Deafness, Journalists, Writers

And The Bible Says...

John testified further, saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God." - Jn 1:32-34

Receiving Christ

The parish hosted a First Reconciliation Penance Service on December 9th for approximately 62 children from both our school and Faith Formation Programs. Our Pastor, Father David and parish priests Father Ken and Father Ed offered Christ’s unconditional love and mercy through individual confessions. Please continue to pray for all of these children and their families as they continue to prepare to receive Christ in First Holy Communion this coming May.

Help An “Outmate”

Those left behind when a family member is incarcerated are just as affected as the inmates themselves. “Outmates” need not be isolated by this experience. Families reaching out to each other can help ease the pain. We offer each other information and support.
